Mr. Whedon's Platform
The primary election for the nomination of candidates for office by the several parties will be held Tuesday, August 16, 1919.

I am a candidate for the office of United States senator on the republican ticket.

I am in favor of all the legislation declared for by the republican party in its platform this year.

I am in favor of the performance of every promise made by the republican party in its national platform of 1908, and for such a revision of the tariff downwards as can be discovered without the aid of a search warrant.

I am in favor of placing lumber and other material used in the construction of dwellings on the free list, and of doing it at the next session of congress.

I am in favor of placing on the free list at the next session of congress, agricultural implements, mechanics' tools of all kinds, sewing machines, and everything which can be produced here, the importation of which yields the government practically no revenue, and which are manufactured here and sold for export at a less price than for home use.

I am for placing sugar on the free list at the earliest day possible.

If the laws now in force are not sufficient for the effective prosecution of forbidden trusts and combinations, I am in favor of the enactment of such further laws as will drive that class of combinations out of existence.

I am in favor of such governmental control of transportation companies as will prevent unjust discrimination and extortion and the imposition of rates for service intended to yield an income on nothing invested.

Insofar as that object may be accomplished by legislation I am in favor of the enactment of laws which will tend to decrease the cost of living.

I am opposed to ship subsidy.

I am in favor of such legislation, state and national, as will afford to every depositor in a bank the greatest possible security for his money.

I am in favor of restricting the franking privilege to the free transportation of the Congressional Record and parts thereof; the reports and public documents of the government or any department thereof, and of making it a criminal offense for the free transportation of anything else through the mails.

I am in favor of reducing the postage on first-class matter, fifty per cent, and that at the next session of congress.

I am opposed to all unnecessary appropriations of public funds all of which appropriations must come from the people either by direct or indirect taxation.

I am opposed to all legislation which tends to the creation of great interests and combinations by the few, to the ruin of individual effort and the destruction of industrious, independent action of the many and the deprivation of labor of its just compensation.

I am in favor of liberal appropriations to all ex soldiers who have rendered faithful service to the government in time of war.

I am in favor of such federal legislation as will tend to prevent "bootlegging." To that end I am in favor of the enactment by congress at the earliest possible day of a law which shall prohibit the government from selling stamps or issuing permits for the sale of intoxicating liquors in territory where such sales are prohibited by local law, and making such sales in such territory crimes against the federal government. CHAS. O. WHEEDON.

Congressman Hitchcock for Senator

TO THE VOTERS AT THE PRIMARIES:
August 16th is primary day and I ask for the democratic and populist nomination for United States Senator.

I was born in Nebraska fifty years ago and have lived in the State all my life except two years spent at school as a boy in Germany.

Twenty-five years ago this month I established the Evening World. Four years later this became the Morning and Evening World Herald, which I have published and edited as a radical democratic paper, supporting also many populist candidates.

I am now serving my third term in Congress, representing Douglas, Washington and Sarpy Counties. I have been elected in this republican district by increasing majorities because people of all parties have approved my course in Congress.

My record shows that I have fought the trusts, tariff robbery, ship subsidies and Canonism.

I have supported the income tax, railroad regulation and publicity of campaign contributions. I assisted in the passage of the postal savings bank bill and I forced the investigation of Ballinger and the land frauds.

In these and other respects I have not only stood with my Democratic associates but have co-operated with such progressive republicans as Murdock in the house and LaFollette in the Senate.

I trust that my service in the house has qualified me for a place in the senate and I ask your support at the primaries Aug. 16th. Respectfully,
GILBERT M. HITCHCOCK.
