Get your electric irons of MORHAUT BROS., they carry the authorized iron. Be careful of "just as good" electric irons.
He told his 12-year-old son to milk the cows feed the horses, slop the pigs hunt up the eggs, feed the calves, catch the colt and put him in the stable, cut some wood, split the kindlings, stir the cream, pump fresh water in the creamery after supper, and to be sure to study his lessons before he went to bed. Then he went to the farmers' club to discuss the question "How to keep the boys on the farm."
An exceptionally fine rain fell here Tuesday night and Wednesday. About two inches fell on the thirsty fields which will insure another crop of alfalfa, make the pastures grow and will mature the corn. This has been a strange year. We very much doubt the ability of any old settler recalling a rainy August in the years that have past. In all probability more rain will fall this month than fell in June and July combined.
Stand by your town. Not a dollar invested there but some good comes of it. There is no family like one's own family, there is no wife like one's own wife; there should be no town like one's own town' where we live, educate our children, on whose street our babies play, and where we may some day sleep. Let the newspapers stand by the town, and let the business men stand by the newspapers, and let us make our home as famous as possible.
We sometimes wonder if the people of Nebraska really appreciate the fact that the Nebraska State Fair is considered the best exhibition of its kind given by any state in the Union. It is not one of the largest, but it is certainly one of the best! The Iowa Homestead, one of the foremost agricultural papers in the country and which has a representative present at every state fair held in the United States, says: "While the Nebraska State Fair is not one of the largest, I have always considered it one of the best of the state fairs from an educational point of view for the farmers and stockraisers." This indicates that the people of this state have right at their door the best fair in the United States and those who have never attended a session of the state fair should go this year and see for themselves what is considered by outsiders "the best in the country." The dates are Sept. 5 to 9 and 11. We'll pay you to take note of that date.

Lady Dies on Train
Local railroad officials and Undertaker Ed. Amack were notified Wednesday morning of the death of a lady passenger on train No. 14, and arrangements were made for the return of the body to Denver in charge of a daughter Mrs. Jamison who was with her at the time of her death. May Shorten Time of State League.
Proposition Being Considered to Have Nebraska Organization Stop With September 1.
HASTINGS, Neb., Aug. 13—(Special Telegram)—As a precaution against possible financial troubles, the directors of the Nebraska Base Ball league may be asked to present to the local managers a proposition to shorten the schedule to end on September 1, instead of on September 10.
It is believed here that all teams are able to go through to the finish under the present schedule, but the finances of all the clubs are getting low and if the last ten days are knocked off it will leave the league in better shape to resume next year. Reports received here indicate that with possibly one exception all towns now in the league will reorganize for next year. Red Cloud has been disappointed in its patronage, but if that or any other town drops out Beatrice stands ready to take the franchise.—Sunday Omaha Bee.
The above is about as near the truth as Dr. Cook was near to the north pole. Strange how some people allow their personal feelings to sidetrack the truth. As a matter of fact the last day that we played Hastings during their chautauqua we received $31.00 as our share of the gate receipts. The last game here during our chautauqua we paid the Grand Island team $128.34 as their share of the gate receipts. We are willing to compare our attendance record for the season with any city on the circuit. Hastings with about twice the population of Red Cloud has a much smaller attendance at the ball games than we do. If any team drops out of the league we believe that it will be the Hastings team. Just because we have captured nearly all the games from that team is no reason why Hastings should sit on the south side fence and pout. Come off the perch Hastings, when you send in the news tell the truth.

A TRUTHFUL ASSERTION.
The worst habit that boys can fall into is that of loafing around on the streets at night. It is then they cast their lot in slippery places when at any moment they are likely to fall from grace. All good and noble lessons taught by their mothers are there counteracted and nullified. They learn nothing that is good—but everything bad. The boys who spend their evenings in the sacred precincts of home, with good books for their companions are the future hope of this republic; they will fill our legislative and congressional hall, and sit in judgment upon men and measures, while the boys who run the streets will fill our penitentiaries, almshouses and lunatic asylums. Parents who are responsible for these broken laws of decency will have broken hearts and bowed down heads in the awakening years that will inevitably follow.

To The Young People of Red Cloud and Vicinity.

The Lincoln Business College, which ranks among the very best business schools in the country, is making a special effort to largely increase their enrollment for the ensuing year. Increased facilities are being provided in every department and no expense spared to give to pupils every advantage gained by an experience of twenty-six years, at the lowest rates consistent with the best service.

To bring the merits of this school directly before the young people of Red Cloud and vicinity and their parents, a representative is here, and would be glad to make arrangements with parents or prospective students to call on them. See or phone Mr. C. M. Baird, Royal Hotel, Red Cloud, or address, after this week, E. C. BIGGER, President Lincoln Business College, Lincoln, Nebraska.
