George Isom was in town Monday. Mrs. Martha Carpenter left for Vermont Friday. Ralph and Gray Steiner are on the sick list this week. There is to be a penny social at Mrs. Arnold's Thursday evening. Miss Veres visited at the home of Dr. Phillips a few days of last week. Wm. Wonderly and family went to Hebron, Nebr., Thursday to attend a Woodman picnic.

Those attending the Chautauqua from about here were very well pleased with its management and hope for its continuance. While W. S. Bense and family were in Red Cloud one day last week one of his horses was taken suddenly sick at home. A Veterinarian was telephoned for and it is now on the road to recovery.

S. Beckwith was unfortunate in losing two ricks of alfalfa by spontaneous combustion. They contained about fifty tons. The crop being light this year is a severe loss.

Lots of the farmers in Garfield are busy plowing for fall wheat.

Ray Sutton has quit working for Bert King and has gone south.

An agent for Henningson Produce Co., was on wind mill row Tuesday rustling cream.

A fine rain fell Thursday and Tuesday nights which is liable to spoil some of the nubbins.

Will Fisher went to town Sunday and brought his children home where they have been visiting for the past week.

Mrs. Griffith returned to her home in Galveston, Texas on Monday after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. T. W. White.

We understand some farms in the south part of Garfield have been sold but nothing sure yet for money is what talks.

The thrashing has let up for this week for the steamer has pulled in for the winter and the horse power has broke down and is waiting for repairs.

The primary election came off Tuesday and some of the candidates feel better and some feel worse but then they can't all be elected and it all goes in politics and war.
