The stay at home vote was the largest of all which shows that a majority of us prefer to keep still and let the other fellow run our affairs.

A word of caution to automobilists We have no reference to those who obey the law and who show every courtesy possible. Our remarks are addressed to those who are so thoughtless as to let their own pleasures interfere with the rights of others. We notice that autos run after dark without their lights. This is dangerous. We met one the other night just after dusk without lights which kept the road and made no effort to give us even an inch. The man with a team has just as much right to the road as the one with an auto. Some owners or drivers of automobiles seem to believe that they are the lords of creation and have the right of way everywhere. We believe that anyone who willfully violates the laws of Nebraska and who jepardizes the safety of others should receive the full penalty of the law.

After writing a letter to Mr. Hitchcock congratulating him on his nomination, Richard L. Metcalfe gave out the following statement:

"I can surely sing. There is Sunshine in My Soul Today,' for all that I remember of the campaign, so far as my own contest is concerned, is the good will expressed by thousands of men and women, most of whom I had never met, and the kindness shown me by the newspapers of the state, republican and democrat alike. I believe there was never a candidate for office that received such generous attention by newspapers of all parties as I received at the hands of Nebraska editors The newspaper men will never know what is in my heart to say to them. If I should try to speak it my voice would break. If I should try to write it my pen would falter. All I can do is to say 'thank you;' and this comes from the depths of my heart so fall of gratitude for high favors, so full of faith renewed in the loving kindness of men that there is no coun for stings or vain regrets."
