WESTERN WEBSTER

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cockrane spent Sunday at C. L. Herrieks.

Mirth Walker who is attending school in Red Cloud was home over Saturday.

There is a regular epidemic of colds in the neighborhood. And no one is being slighted.

Charley Lambert, an old western websterite, was here from the west last week and bought a farm on Thompson creek.

The revival at the Christian church will close next Sunday night. There is a full attendance every night and a good many are being converted.

This locality was visited by the heaviest rain of the season last week. It was accompanied by a hard wind and lots of corn fields are badly damaged.

Mrs. Ed Hanson of Red Cloud has been visiting her sister Mrs. Orla Eneyart for the last few days.

Mrs. Effie Harvey came home Sunday from a two weeks visit with her daughter Mrs. Hortense Grossman of Burlington, Colorado.

GARFIELD

Joe Mudds baby is quite sick this week.

A good many attended the opera in Red Cloud Saturday night.

An old soaker of a rain fell Sunday night and it was pretty cold Monday.

Sowing wheat and cutting corn fodder is the order of the day in Garfield.

Mrs. George Harris' mother from Colorado is visiting with her for a few weeks.

Mr. White sold his steers to Henry Hansen and now Henry is better known as Cudahay the second.

Frank Amack cut his corn fodder last week and it looks like he would have a winter's job of shocking it.

A fine rain on Thursday night and more rain fell than could soak in the ground so there was plenty to run off.

T. W. White and Col. Wiggins went to Farnas county to buy hogs and cattle to feed their corn to this winter.

Frank King returned home from New Mexico Saturday morning where he bought land and is well pleased with the country there.

Frank Amack took his cattle out of his pasture Saturday and took them over the river and put them in the Goble pasture for a month.

The relatives and neighbors gathered at Guy Barnes Sunday and surprised his good natured wife in memory of her birthday. Everybody had a good time in the fore noon playing games and a good dinner was served at noon. After dinner L. A. Manley the picture man took a number of pictures of the crowd. They got her a rocking chair to remember the event but we know that she will not get to use it much for Guy has that tired feeling when he sees a rocking chair and we expect he will keep it busy. There was about forty there and all had a good time.

LESTER

Endeavor Sunday night at Lester.

Charlie Moede returned home Monday from Blue Hill.

Mrs. Fink and sons visited relatives at Hubbard this week.

Miss Dollie Rasser called on Mrs. John Rasser Tuesday.

We had a half inch of rain Sunday night. It will help the wheat.

A good many of our citizens attended the county fair at Bladen this week. They thought the fair was good.

Elmer Himes and Pete Lewis returned home from Hastings Monday. We wonder what takes their attraction there.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills of Havelock, Mrs. Parsons and children of Inland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Monia, and Gotfried Monia spent Sunday at Gotfried Rasser's.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Rasser, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rasser and family and Mrs. Lue Bergfield and daughter Sundayed at Andrew Kings.

GUIDE ROCK.

John Gleason and family were over Monday visiting his parents J. S. Gleason and wife.

The special train from here took a large delegation to Bladen Thursday to the County Fair.

Guide Rock defeated Burr Oak 2 to 1 at Superior. The boys feel pretty well pleased. A big delegation from here attended.

Mrs. Lulu Beall who was struck on the back of the head by a stray ball at her school last Thursday is now reported to be improving. She was in a critical condition for several days. She had stepped to the door at recess to see that the little ones did not get to close to those that were playing ball when by accident she was struck.

Mrs. Hannah Jane Fairfield wife of P. E. Fairfield died Sunday morning at the family home in Guide Rock. She leaves her husband, four sons and one daughter besides her mother, brothers and other relatives. The funeral was held Tuesday at eleven o'clock a. m., at the Christian church. The sermon was preached by Rev. Carey. The W. C. T. U. attended in a body and the pall bearers were members of that organization. Everyone sympathizes with the bereaved family in their great sorrow.

COWLES

This is fair week. Everybody has gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Jud White went to Blue Hill Tuesday between trains.

G. A. Wells and family went to the County Fair Wednesday in his auto.

Morgan Davis traded one quarter of his western land for Mr. Grants automobile.

Roland Ritchey and Art Vance spent Sunday at home. They are attending school at the Hastings college.

Rev. Rose of Blue Hill will preach at the Christian church Sunday afternoon at three thirty. Everybody invited.

Mr. Lew Vice and Mr. Jackson Vice and their families moved from Wilsonville, Nebr., and expect to make their future home in Cowles.

These are certainly prosperous times. There is hardly an hour in the day that you do not see a team in the lumber yard loading up lumber.

There was no school Wednesday on account of it being school day at the fair. I think by the number of scholars lined up at the depot they nearly all went.

Fuller & Bennett shipped a car of stock Wednesday. There certainly has been good money in hogs the past year as the prices are higher than any time since the Civil War.

Making Good Progress on Oil Well.

Mr. Wilcots, the oil and gas man, was in town Thursday and reports that he is having very good success in getting the old hole that was put down last year cleaned out, and will be able to attach the big drill in a day or so and then there will be something doing. If we remember right, the hole was about 500 feet deep when the well was abandoned several months ago. It partly filled up from the walls caving in. Mr. Wilcots seems to be confident of eventual success and believes he will strike oil or gas at a depth of perhaps 1,000 feet. The well is located on the William Pettit farm, three miles southeast of town.—Guide Rock Signal.

Bride Was Deaf.

At a marriage service performed some time ago in a little country church in Berkshire, when the minister said in solemn tone, "Wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband?" Instead of the woman answering for herself, a gruff man's voice answered:

"O! will."

Again the minister looked up surprised, not knowing what to make of it, when one of the groomsmen at the end of the row said:

"Er be deaf. O! be answerin' for 'er."—London Telegraph.

An Editor's Trials.

People won't love us; we have finally made up our mind to that. Yesterday we mentioned the case of a man who has one child and who every evening buys the child an ice cream cone from a street wagon. And we mentioned how the five poor children across the street looked longingly at the fortunate child and wanted some. Up to noon today nine men had claimed that it was a "dig" at them, and said the man across the street had plenty of money but was too stingy to buy his children ice cream cones.—Atchison Globe.

You Take No Risk

Our Reputation and Money are Back of This Offer

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obligated to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. Could anything be more fair for you? Is there any reason why you should hesitate to put our claims to a practical test?

The most scientific, commonsense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. They are very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. They do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping or any inconvenience whatever. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

We urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Two sizes, 10c and 25c. Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. The H. E. Grice Drug Co.
