WESTERN WEBSTER

Mrs. O. B. Harvey is quite sick this week.

Harry Carpenter's baby has been quite sick with lung fever.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Herrick visited at O. M. Enyart's Sunday.

Art. Bron spent Sunday at Ed. Walker's, south of Riverton.

There are two shellers in the neighborhood, both busy most of the time.

Rev. Bassett of Inavate is holding revival meetings at the Pleasant Prairie school house.

Mrs. Lizzie Debrunner and children visited several days the last of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Volk.

School began again at Inavate Monday morning. There was no school last week on account of the furnace not working right.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Herrick of Campbell visited Friday at C. L. Herrick's.

Noah Harvey's two youngest children have been quite sick the past week.

LESTER

A few of the neighbors are shelling this week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Frisbie spent Sunday at Sylvester Frisbie's.

Mae Frisbie left Wednesday to visit relatives in Beaver City, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Hurd of Cowles spent Sunday at Al. Decker's.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cox and family Sundayed at Frank Frisbie's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Saladen and family Sundayed at Gottlieb Rasser's.

Ben Rasser had a shooting match at his place. Quite a few geese were shot.

Mr. Waldo Swartz left Saturday for his home in Iowa. His wife will return later.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rasser and son Carl, Mr. Sylvester Sherman, and Mrs. John Rasser Sundayed at Will Robertson's.

Mr. Ed King, Miss Mary Holcomb, Mr. Joe Britten, Miss Mae Frisbie, Mr. Tom Stimpson, and Miss Dollie Rasser spent Sunday evening at Andrew King's.

GARFIELD

Col. Wiggins shipped his cattle to market Sunday.

Lee Smith and wife are visiting at Guy Barnes this week.

Manley Bros. will soon have their skating rink completed.

The snow storm is over and we are having fine weather again.

Will Fisher shelled and hauled corn to Gravenor Stansers one day last week.

The Fisher and Carter thrasher is making a run in East Garfield this week.

Manley Bros. sold seven wagon loads of logs on Saturday and now they have money to throw at the birds.

Pete and Alfred Manley and Will Fisher attended the Odd Fellow lodge in Guide Rock Wednesday evening of last week and reported a good time and we think they did by the way that the boys got the oysters out of sight and kept the waiter busy.

GUIDE ROCK

Mrs. Henry Britton is very poorly.

Will Schultz's children have scarletina.

J. T. Mason went to Kearney to visit with his son Everett.

Mrs. John Dunbar has been very low ever since last Thursday.

There are not enough well people in Guide Rock to wait on the sick.

Sara Smith of Red Cloud is visiting his nephew J. W. Hughes and family.

Mr. Steinke of Holdrege is the guest of his daughter Mrs. Abe Schobourg.

Mr. Albin has built a new residence east of Chris Konzack's place and is now moved and settled.

Rev. Barch of M. E. church is holding revival meetings at Bostwick beginning last Sunday night.

Mrs. G. W. Hoover has been ill and appreciates the number of calls she has received from friends.

Morris Yohn and wife returned Tuesday evening from a visit at Superior with Mr. Yohn's parents.

Rev. Robbins is conducting a series of meetings at the Baptist church assisted by Rev. Miner a revivalist.

John Schultz and family moved this week to their new home here in Guide Rock which they bought a few months ago of G. M. Albin.

Abe Schobourg was out on the street a little while Tuesday. He has been ill many weeks and he certainly appreciates being able to get out.

Dr. Mitchell of Superior was called Wednesday in consultation with Dr. Pace in the case of little Thelma daughter of P. W. Roland and wife. The little one is very seriously ill.

It would be far easier to give a list of well people than the names of sick ones. And it would not be safe to guarantee that even the small number one could mention as well would be so by the time the paper was in print.

Owing to the unusual amount of sickness in this vicinity the Installation Drill and Memorial service which was to have been given Tuesday by the D. of H. lodge was called off. Both services will be given later but on different dates.

The M. E. Sunday School elected the following officers last Sunday:

Superintendent, G. M. Albin.
Assistant Supt., Mrs. Clarence Guy.
Secretary, Miss Wilma Guy.
Assistant Sec., Miss Esther Brehm.
Treasurer, Miss Laura Ely.
Organist, Miss Irene Crow.
Chorister, Miss Olive Dickerson.
Librarian, Albert Pace.

Mrs. Lucinda Montgomery died Tuesday noon, January 10, 1911, aged 93 years, 1 month and 2 days. She died at the home of her son William Montgomery, Sr., with whom she had made her home for many years. She was born in Lexington, Kentucky, Dec. 8, 1817. The funeral was held at the Baptist church at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Robbins conducted the service.
