COWLES

E. T. Foe was in Red Cloud Wednesday.

Mrs. Marsh has a sister visiting at their home for a short time.

Chas. Bennett went to Blue Hill Thursday on telephone business.

Miss Florence Squires is staying with Mrs. Ida Squires and intends to finish this year's school here.

Jas. McBride is moving into the Chas. Francis property across the creek in the east part of town.

Wells & McTaggart one of our energetic hardware firms is building an addition to their implement store.

Robert Garrison of Guide Rock was up Wednesday morning fixing his auto which had balked for the driver Maalin Crow.

Mr. and Mrs. McDoo of Moundville, Mo., are making a short visit with Mr. Deakin and family. Mrs. McDoo used to live in England where Mrs. Deakin was raised.

I. W. Squires and family left for Hastings where they intend to make their future home. We are very sorry to lose them but wish them a prosperous future.

O. R. Fickle of Ashland, Iowa came in this week and is moving on what is known as the Brown farm north of Cowles. His son has lived here for two years. We welcome him among us.

The B & M. R. R. Co. intends to put in a switch below Cowles about a mile and a half where the sand mounds are numerous. The cement business has become so great that there is no doubt that a switch there will pay well. There is few if any other place in the state where good sand is so accessible as there is at this place.

GUIDE ROCK.

D. D. Fanders of Diller was a guest at the Lambert home from Friday until Sunday.

Miss Robby Fisher of Superior spent Sunday in Guide Rock with her friend Mrs. Dana Burr.

Jack Milner and wife have moved in with Hastings Milner and wife, parents of the former.

Mrs. D. Kaley returned home Sunday morning from a visit with her daughter Mrs. J. A. Sheeley.

Reese Stickley and wife have returned from their visit in the country with their son Bert and family.

Bert Van Horn and family expect to move to the country, on the farm with Andrew Schultz, who is their son-in-law.

The Degree of Honor lodge gave the "Memorial Service" Tuesday evening at the hall in memory of Robt. T. Jewell who died March 30th of last year.

Miss Malissa Lambert who teaches at Diller came up Friday evening to visit her parents W. S. Lambert and wife. She returned to Diller Sunday morning.

Jad Dugger has rented the residence of C. G. Parkinson in the northwest part of town and will move in as soon as the house is vacated by Carroll Willman who is going on a farm.

Grandma Johnson of Iowa who is visiting in this vicinity is spending this week with her daughter Mrs. Reese Stickley. She had been for sometime visiting her other daughter Mrs. May Sabin.

Abe L. Schobourg and wife and little niece Gladys Conner spent Sunday in Holdrege with relatives of Mrs. Schobourg. The elder Mrs. Schobourg and Agnes Conner were guests of Albert Schobourg while the others were gone.

Frank Shadley died Saturday morning about 10:30 o'clock after an illness of several weeks. The body was taken Sunday to Filley, Nebraska for burial. Mr. Shadley was a member of the Royal Highlanders order. He leaves his wife, and three grown daughters, Faye, Gladys and Bernice. The family and three of the other relatives accompanied the body.

William Montgomery died very suddenly of heart disease Monday morning about eleven o'clock. He was conversing with friends at his feed store when quickly he slipped from his chair and died instantly. He had reached the age of seventy-two years the tenth of February. He was born in Ohio and was a veteran of the Civil war. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. lodge for many years. His aged mother died just seven weeks ago. Mr. Montgomery and his wife were Webster County pioneers coming here in 1871 and homesteading the farm on which the original "guide rock" (a big lime-stone bluff) is located. Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, W. E. Montgomery and Ora Montgomery who reside here and one daughter, Mrs. Rose Sheeley of Colorado. Two brothers and a sister survive. The funeral was held at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. W. Robbins conducted the service. The first of this year five generations in this family were living. In the short space of seven weeks two generations have passed away.

WESTERN WEBSTER

Walt Garner and family came home from California Saturday.

A. T. Walker and wife of Red Cloud visited Sunday at I. O. Walker's.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Peters of Campbell spent Sunday at C. L. Herricks'.

There are a dozen or more farms in this locality that are changing hands this spring. It seems as if its nearly everybody's move.

We had a fine snow storm the first of the week the result of the wolf hunt Tuesday. Two weeks ago it rained the day of the wolf hunt and we begin to think that all we need to do to coax down a little moisture is to organize a big hunt. It's a little hard on the captains tho.

Grandma Myers, who has been ill for quite a while, departed this life Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Debrunner. Funeral services were held at the house Monday and she was laid to rest in the Riverton cemetery. Her many friends extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

LESTER

Lagrippe is the order of the day. Miss Ola Swartz has returned home from Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blair spent Sunday at Fred Brights.

Mrs. John Emick and son visited her daughter Mrs. Porter Hale Sunday.

Mr. Charlie Lewis passed away Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock. The funeral occurred Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock and interment took place in the Pleasant Hill cemetery. We all sympathize with the bereaved family.

GARFIELD

The weather is a little cool in Garfield this week.

Will Fisher and Guy Barnes shelled corn one day last week.

The first of March came in like a lamb and it will probably go lamb it out.

George Coon and his right hand man Al Smith were on wind mill row Sunday.

Mr. White and family left this week for their new home. We wish him success.

Mrs. Chris Hansen arrived home from a three weeks visit in Oklahoma and her nephew came home with her.

Lee Smith and wife called on her folks Mr. Joe Taylor of Guide Rock on Saturday night and returned home Monday.

The neighbors of T. W. Whites surprised them on Thursday evening with an oyster supper and everybody had a good time.

The wolf hunt on Wednesday was well attended and they got six and a good many got away. There was about five hundred men in the round up.
