

APPENDICITIS

Cured Without Operation.

Here is Sworn Proof:

STATE OF MINNESOTA,
COUNTY OF STEELE.

I, Richard Jahreiss, of Owatonna, Minn., being first duly sworn, do say that I am the person named in and who subscribed the following statement and the same is true of my own knowledge, in every particular: "I had severe pains in my right side, just above the Appendix. I went to the doctor and he pronounced my case Appendicitis and advised an operation. Instead I went to Zamboni Bros., Drug Store and bought a bottle of (Adier-ika) Treatment. After taking it the result was indeed wonderful. The pains stopped and I felt like a new man. I heartily recommend (Adier-ika) Treatment to anyone troubled with Appendicitis, as I know it has cured me."

(Signed) RICHARD H. JAHREISS,
Subscribed and sworn to before me June 29, 1905.
J. NEWSALT, Notary Public, Steele County.

Appendicitis is becoming worse and worse, and everyone should know of this wonderfully successful treatment. A valuable book, showing many pictures of that curious and little known organ, the human Appendix, and telling how Appendicitis is caused, how it can be treated without operation, and how you can easily guard yourself against it, will be given FREE to anyone calling at our store.

MANLEY BROS.

Here's a low-price picnic going on; you're invited

YOU'RE probably not very different from the rest of us when it comes to getting some unusual value for your money; it's human nature, and everybody's got some of that in them.

We've made up our minds to clean up this stock of good things to wear; to clear out all fall and winter goods and start the spring season with an entirely new lot of stuff.

In order to do it we're quoting prices on these things that are good enough reason for any man who likes to get good things for less than they're really worth to come here on the run.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

clothes are among these goods; and when any man can get Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes at less than the usual prices he's certainly not very wise if he doesn't do it.

There are a lot of other good things, too; we'll give you an idea of what to expect here:

20 per cent Discount Continues This Week.

PAUL STOREY, THE CLOTHIER

This store is the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes.

The Nebraska Telephone company has a gang of linemen here reconstructing the toll line from Lester to Republican City.

Dr. Warriek, the specialist will meet eye, ear, nose and throat patients and those needing glasses properly fitted at Dr. Danerell's office in Red Cloud Tuesday, March 21st.
January 16th, Mary J. Day widow of Sylvester Day made application for a widow's pension and has been granted a widow's pension of $12.09 per month. Fred Maurer was her attorney.

M. C. Sherman received a telegram Tuesday announcing the death, in a hospital at Pueblo, of the month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hiatt. The remains were taken to La Veta, Col., for burial.
Roy Rust proprietor of the Royal Barber Shop has all modern conveniences in his first class Barber Shop. An electric Massage, first class workman. Particular people patronize his particular place.
Harry Schwarm of Pittsburg, Pa., who is spending the winter here for his health, while out motoring Sunday received a sprained ankle and a general shaking up. At this writing he is getting along all right.
R. P. Price of Independence, Mo., was a visitor in our city Monday. He had just returned from Seattle, Washington, from which place he brought the remains of his brother for burial at Blue Hill on Sunday.
Our specialties—single Photographs and Group Pictures, you do the sitting, we do the work in classy, artistic manner. Ours is "The Model Studio" and the sooner you come the sooner you get your picture.—STEVENS BROS.
Earl Holliday, son of William Holliday, became violently ill Tuesday evening from eating poisoned candy. He remained unconscious for about nine hours, and at a late hour last night he was still in a critical condition.
Drs. Riddle & Foote, successors to Drs. Weirick & Riddle, of Hastings, Neb., will meet eye, ear, nose and throat patients, and those needing glasses fitted, at Red Cloud, Neb., Thursday, March 16, 1911, at Dr. Cross' office.
Grand Master Paul Storey instituted a new Odd Fellows lodge in Berwyn, Custer county, last Tuesday night. The new lodge starts out with thirty-one members and the prospects are good for many more. Within the next thirty days he will institute ten more lodges. It is altogether likely that during Mr. Storey's term of office more new lodges will be instituted than in any other year in the history of the order.

At the open meeting of the Music Study club last Thursday evening, Mr. E. H. Newhouse treated the club and their guests to a concert of selections on his beautiful Victrola. These selections were much appreciated by all present.
Rev. Cressman announced last Sunday that on next Sunday, March 12, in the evening at 7:30, he would preach a sermon on our Sunday laws and answer the question, "Shall our Sunday laws be repealed or enforced?" Be sure and hear it.
On last Thursday at John Erickson's public sale a span of mares sold for $615.80 and one yearling colt sold for $198. All the other horses sold well. Such items speak much for Col. J. H. Ellinger's ability as an Auctioneer as well as for the quality of the horses.
Just as much care, in fact a little more, should be exercised in buying electric sad irons, as in buying anything else. Some irons use more electricity than others in doing the same work. Get your electric irons of MORHAFF BROS. they carry the authorized iron. Be careful of "just as good" electric irons.
The Ladies' Club presents Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew" in pantomime, Saturday night, at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Overman. We think that the ladies should be prevailed upon to present this play, which undoubtedly demanded much time and thought in its preparation to the general public in the near future.
The Congregationalists have completed arrangements for holding a ten days' meeting, commencing Friday, April 7, and closing on Easter Sunday evening. W. W. Guldinger of Lincoln, one of the young men who was here Christmas week, will be present and conduct the song services and have charge of the music. All singers are cordially invited to join the chorus and assist in making the meetings a spiritual uplift to all. All churches are heartily invited to be present and take part in the meetings.—A. C. Cressman, Minister.

The last speaker of the lecture course Monday night failed to impress the audience with anything like general favor. The gentleman was not an adept either in delivery, enunciation or truthfulness. Perhaps his traveling one million five hundred thousand miles has incapacitated him from seeing anything in its right relations. Mr. Beauchamp was a disappointment.
The work of repairing the Peterson building, which was recently damaged by fire, was begun Monday morning, although the building had been condemned by the city council. Last evening an injunction was served upon Mr. Peterson restraining him from proceeding with the work, and the matter will have to go through the courts. Mr. Peterson contends that he was merely putting the building in shape to move it from the lot, in order to make room for a substantial brick building.
The "sky line" on the east side of Webster street between Fourth and Fifth avenues is about to undergo a decided change. In order to make room for his new tie barn, R. W. Koontz will move the building now occupied by Will Lindley's restaurant to the vacant lot between the Chief office and the Newhouse store. This move is only temporary, however, as negotiations are pending for the erection of a brick or cement building on the three lots belonging to the Newhouse estate.
Citizens Convention
