Just because it is the first of 'em, do not be fooled into changing 'em. Plenty of time yet. By the way, did you take down your stove?

What are you doing for your town? If you have no confidence in the growth and improvement of the town and country in which you live on earth do you expect other people to move among you and cause the country to develop and grow for your benefit.

On to Maurer's springs! Why waste any more valuable time? There is money enough in sight to develop those springs and show that the water is there and there in large quantities. These springs are the outlet for the watershed from here to the Platte river, so why not develop them and remove any question about the supply not being there. It will be hot pretty soon, and then—what shall we drink?

One can not help noticing how much better the horses are than they were a few years ago. Formerly horse buyers came in and purchased all the best horses, and the consequence was that we kept all the poorer ones ourselves. Now, however, the most beautiful animals can be seen on our streets any day. When the street cars came into general use, people said the horse would be a thing of the past; when the automobiles came into use the same statement was made, but, as time goes on, the horse is more a part of our industrial life than ever before. The fiery broncho of the early day has gone and in his stead is to be found the trusty draft horse and driver.

Once more the weather man has played a joke on us. Just as our fruit trees were in full bloom and our gardens were beginning to give promise of a magnificent harvest, along came the snow and ice and apparently took the whole crop away at one fell swoop. Opinions differ as to the amount of damage done. The most optimistic declare that there will be plenty of cherries and apples in spite of the freeze. What really counts more than the fruit and gardens is the rain that came with the storm. Fully two and a half inches of water fell last week and the farmers' fields are well watered.

The general opinion expressed in regard to the census enumeration as given for this city is that there has been some woeful mistake made. It is pointed out that the vote at the last city election was the largest ever polled, and that our school rooms are crowded. There are more children in our schools than ever before, and that ought to point to a much larger population. We might do as they do in the old country, and take our census in one day. Ten men could easily do it, and we would be willing to be one of the ten. So long as we feel that we are larger than the government gives us credit for, we ought to get at it and verify or disprove the count. Surely 1,686 seems small compared to the way we feel. It may be that we have selected a hat that is too large, but anyway let us find out.

The New City Officers.

Mayor Sam Foe has appointed A. C. Slaby as city marshal and night watch, J. S. Gilham city attorney, and George Clauson street commissioner. D. H. Rich is retained temporarily as superintendent of the water and light plant, with two assistants.

G. W. Hutchison was elected president of the council.

Mayor Foe has made the following recommendations:

That the committee on finance shall furnish this council at each meeting a list of all water and light consumers delinquent more than thirty days.

That all supplies shall be ordered by the committee on supplies, and the same shall be O. K'd by the chairman thereof. Provided, however, that the council shall outline the class of supplies desired.

That all orders for supplies shall be in duplicate; that one copy is to be forwarded to the supply house with request that same be attached to claim and forwarded to city clerk. The other copy is to be filed with the city clerk, who shall check and report with his O. K. to the council.

That the water and light commissioner shall, as soon as supplies are received, go to clerk's office and place his O. K. on claims as to having received them.

That all employees shall be employed or hired by the city council, except in case of an emergency the water and light commissioner shall receive his orders for extra help from the mayor.

For Bald Heads

A Treatment That Costs Nothing If It Fails

We want you to try three large bottles of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic on our personal guarantee that the trial will not cost you a penny if it does not give you absolute satisfaction. That's proof of our faith in this remedy, and it should indisputably demonstrate that we know what we are talking about when we say that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will grow hair on bald heads, except where baldness has been of such long duration that the roots of the hair are entirely dead, the follicles closed and grown over, and the scalp is glazed.

Remember, we are basing our statements upon what has already been accomplished by the use of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, and we have the right to assume that what it has done for thousands of others it will do for you. In any event you cannot lose anything by giving it a trial on our liberal guarantee. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, The H. E. Grice Drug Co.

YEGGMEN LOOT ROSEMONT BANK

Robbers Get Away with $1600—Blood hounds Loose Scent—Interior of Bank Wrecked.

Tuesday morning about 1:30 a gang of bank robbers broke into the State Bank of Rosemont and robbed the safe netting them $1600. Three charges of nitroglycerine were used to blow the safe open and it took them about thirty-five minutes to do the job.

Bloodhounds were brought from Lincoln on the morning train and put on the robber's trail but they lost the scent.

The job was evidently the work of professionals, and it is believed that they are the same men who robbed the Naponee bank last week and got away with $3000.

The interior of the frame bank building was wrecked by the explosions, of which there were three, coming about 10 minutes apart.

John Hanzlicek and B. J. Kohmetzsch were sleeping in the rear of Mr. Kohmetzsch's saloon about a 100 feet from the bank building when they were aroused by an explosion about 1:15 a. m. They guessed at once that the bank was being robbed but were afraid to venture outside the saloon. It was not until 40 minutes after the first explosion that they nerved themselves sufficiently to notify Cashier Boos, who lived nearby.

The banker went at once to the bank and summoned others. The interior of the place was badly wrecked. The door of the safe had been blown off and landed on the opposite side of the room, a distance of about eight feet. The windows were broken and the counters were overturned. Near the safe were a grubbing hoe, railroad pick and a carpenter's hammer, both left behind by the robbers.

Besides $1,600 in gold, silver and currency, constituting nearly all the cash in the safe, the yeggmens took a bundle of notes. Records left intact show just what notes are missing.

All morning a crowd of several hundred persons was assembled about the bank building. This interfered with the dogs taking the scent.

Searchers found $56 in gold and silver in the wreckage in the bank building in the afternoon.

Sheriff Hedge was called and went to the scene early Tuesday morning. Detective Malone of Lincoln and Sheriff Jones were also on the scene.

No clue was left by the robbers to which direction they went or how many there were in the gang.

On Tuesday Sheriff Hedge arrested three suspicious characters at Cowles, and after an examination by a Lincoln officer they were released. On Wednesday the same three tramps were located at the stock yards in this city and on advice of interested parties were taken into custody by the sheriff and lodged in jail on suspicion of being connected with the Rosemont bank robbery.

The bank had a capital of $5000 and deposits of nearly $50,000. The officers are:

President, Henry Gund.
 Vice-President, C. F. Gund.
 Cashier, O. J. Boos.

A Woman's View of the Social Problem.

To the Editor of the Chief:
 Why do women want to vote?
 I will tell you. In the first place, they would like to run the whole universe (I mean the majority of them) — I don't mean all, for I am a woman myself.

Woman has a sphere of her own, and if she does her duty she is doing more for this mother earth of ours than she can ever—yes, ever—do by voting.

If she ever takes to voting, helping in public politics, etc., she will have to neglect her own fireside—and what is home without a mother, and what is home without a wife?

If the women of our country would turn their attention to their boys and girls, commence when they first lisp, to say their little prayers at mother's knee, for they never forget it. And, mothers, do not let your children run the streets. You don't know what kind of futures they are building for themselves.

Make things interesting in your homes and have work, but not too much, for their little hands, to keep them from learning mischief. You know the devil finds work for idle hands.

Yes, women, if you want to rule the world do it through your children in the right way, by bringing them up to be good and useful men and women, and you will be happier yourselves and your husbands and children will be happy.

But, women, if you keep on trying to vote the world will get worse and worse, for what will the next generation be like (and it is bad enough now) without the right bringing up, which it can not have without the attention of the mother?

And another thing—I believe that the men, if they saw the women were trying to make everything better in the home and with their children, would try to do their part in improving the public and everything they are interested in.

Try it, sisters; it is worth the trial. I am not blind in what I am saying.
 L. A.
