NUMBER 22

A DAY OF TROUBLE

is not so greatly dreaded if you have one of our deposit books with a good sum to your credit; in fact, it proves to be the "friend indeed." Do not neglect this important matter; see to it at once that you start a bank account, however small, and then add all you can spare to it. Remember, the rainy day is bound to come.

Interest paid on Time Deposits.

BATIN

And still we are in need of rain. Joseph Jelinek is building a new hay rack. Frank Strobl finished painting his barn last week. The way the wind is blowing is something fierce. Vavricka Bros. are repairing their threshing machine. Harrowing and cultivating corn is the order of the day. Mrs. Joseph Polniczy has had some of her corn replanted. Some of the people from this locality attended the play given by the Red Cloud high school.

GARFIELD

Mr. Thompson, Frank Alles and Will Fisher were working the roads in east Garfield last week.

Will Fisher had a sick horse last week. George Harris drilled his millet on Friday. Ray Sutton is working for Smith Brothers. Smith Bros. cut their alfalfa on Saturday. George Coon and family were on wind mill row Friday. Ben Watt and Eli Houchin were in Red Cloud on Saturday. A good many folks attended the Decoration Day exercises at Red Cloud. Mrs. Alles returned to Red Cloud on Saturday after a week's visit at Will Fishers. Dave Kaley bought a bunch of stock cattle on Sunday and took them out to his pasture. There was 110 head in all.

Lee Smith and wife visited his father and mother on Saturday night and Sunday in Kansas.

There was a little excitement on wind mill row when Will Fisher's mules took a little run on Tuesday morning with the cultivator but no damage was done only a few bolts broken.

COWLES

Mrs. Chas. Fuller departed for her home at Bethany Heights Tuesday.

Three autos of our young people went to Red Cloud Saturday evening to attend the play at the Opera House.

There was a church social given at the Christian church for their minister, Chas. Rose, which was well attended. Ice cream and cake were served.

The Red Cloud Fourth of July Advertising parade stopped in Cowles Wednesday and entertained our people for a short time. We are glad you come boys.

F. A. Good finished a new cement bridge on Elm Creek near Roe Boners. This will make quite an improvement to the creek road as this place has a sand bottom.

Freddie Fuller was on our streets Monday for a short time. He was enroute from Lincoln to Bird City, Kas., with an auto which he was to deliver at that place.

M. B. Reeve is the possessor of a new auto which arrived Saturday. Our enterprising firm, Hoyt & Boren are putting out quite a number of Regal and Buick cars.

Memorial services were observed at the Congregational church Sunday. An excellent program was rendered and the address was given by Rev. Deakin. The church was full and overflowing.

Commencement exercises was well attended at the M. E. church Thursday evening. There were seven graduates who received their diplomas from W. W. Ritchey who is Director of the district.

GUIDE ROCK.

Mrs. Wm. Sawyer is on the sick list. Mrs. Julia Lane spent part of Tuesday with Mrs. Hoover.

The Methodist ladies served a fifteen cent lunch at the church basement Thursday.

Miss Jewell of Bostwick has been here the past week visiting with her grand parents, H. Milner and wife and other relatives.

Mrs. Cross, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Parker, went Saturday to the home of her son, Armour, for a few days visit.

Mrs. Eli Fowler and daughter, Winnie, returned the last of the week from a visit at St. Francis, Kas., with her sister, Mrs. Kellum and family.

Ed Watt was able to get about the streets some this week by the aid of crutches. He was badly burned several weeks ago by an explosion of sulphuric acid.

Everybody will celebrate at Red Cloud July 4th of course. The Red Cloud band furnished some fine music here Wednesday while advertising the celebration.

R. S. Prondit and wife of Lincoln came in Tuesday evening to visit relatives. Mr. Prondit is looking after business interests also in connection with the yards of the R. S. Prondit Lumber Co.

A large number of Guide Rock people were at the cemetery Monday fixing up and improving its appearance. During the last few weeks there has been several new monuments placed and a good deal of cement work put in. Autos were busy all day taking people out to decorate the graves.

Twenty Killed in B. & M. Wreck

Two Burlington trains met head-on two miles west of Indianola at 7:10 Monday morning. Twenty are dead and a score injured as a result. Physicians say the death list will be increased.

Passenger trains Nos 9 and 12 are scheduled to meet at Red Willow, between McCook and Indianola. No. 9 was a few minutes late and No. 12, eastbound, is a superior train. It is said that orders should have been issued at McCook for No. 9 to meet No. 12 at Red Willow and that they were not issued. No. 12 did not wait, passing Red Willow practically on time. Two miles west of Indianola, near a curve and in a fog, the two passenger trains, running perhaps fifty miles an hour, met. Where the blame lies can not be learned at the present time. The four engine men, all of whom were residents of Lincoln, are dead and their story will never be heard.

Eugene Smith, formerly transferman at the Burlington depot in Red Cloud, had charge of the baggage car on No. 9, but escaped without injury.

State Holiness Camp Meeting

The Thirty-ninth Annual Camp Meeting of the Nebraska State Holiness Association will be held at Epworth Park, Lincoln, June 19 to 25, 1911, inclusive. Rev. G. A. McLaughlin of Chicago, Rev. Joseph H. Smith of Mississippi, Rev. Will H. Huff of Iowa, Revs. J. M. and M. J. Harris of Illinois and Rev. B. S. Taylor of New York are the principal leaders this year. Circulars, giving full details, are now ready and can be procured by addressing the Secretary, Rev. W. H. Prescott, 1210 O Street, Lincoln Nebraska.

The Birthday Gift

The practise of gift-giving at Christmas time is a modern fashion a habit. There is nothing in the original significance of Christmas to even remotely suggest a gift. It is nevertheless a beautiful idea.

A much more expressive and consistent gift is a Birthday or their anniversary gift. The anniversary is hers, or his very own—Christmas is everybody's. There is a distinction in the anniversary gift—a compliment that the Christmas gift lacks.

Give her, or him, or them, mother, sister, wife, father, brother, husband or friend—a gift on an anniversary and it means something. Make that day the happiest of the year.

Our stock offers articles of use and beauty suitable for all gift occasions, qualities unsurpassed and something at a price you can afford.
