Cowles was defeated in its ball game with Guide Rock at Red Cloud on the 4th by a score of 2 to 3. I guess it was some game

Henry Brubaker had some cement steps put in front of his house this week. They look fine.
The Cowles people were well represented at Red Cloud the Fourth. They all report an excellent time.

Red Cloud Celebrates

Largest Crowd in History of the Town

Red Cloud's much advertised 4th passed off very successfully without the least friction in any quarter. Fully six thousand people attended the celebration and notwithstanding the intense heat and dry weather everybody appeared cheerful and happy. Many visitors to the city spoke highest compliments for the manner in which the committee amused and entertained the throng.
Much praise and credit is due to the city officers and the various committees for the manner in which each executed his part and the harmony of all. Mayor Foe displayed his excellent judgment by roping off Main street at 3rd and 5th avenue and two blocks of 4th avenue and also by suppressing the shooting of fire crackers therein. While this order worked as a hardship on a few it worked as a complete protection to the many and the crowd surged to and fro without the least danger from teams or automobiles.
F. W. Cowden, Chairman of the citizens committee displayed an excellent quality of energy and executive ability, and his efforts met with response and success on every corner. All the committees were well organized and faithful.
J. D. Crans very successfully managed the sports, and Clark Stevens superintended the horse shoe contest with credit.

Hon. J. S. Gilham presided with dignity over the program in the Court House park. Rev. Tompkins was the orator of the day.
The parade was pulled off on scheduled time at 1:30. The band followed by one hundred red, white and blue umbrellas and these by upwards of fifty decorated automobiles made a very interesting parade. Miss Julia Polnick of Bath township took first prize for decorated automobile. S. E. Johnson of Blue Hill, second and James bride of Cowles third.
The ball game between Cowles and Guide Rock was witnessed by about 1500 people. It was a good game from start to finish and was won by Guide Rock by a score of 3 to 2.
The race program was well patronized by numerous entrants. The following are the winners:
50 yard race: Wm. Messenger Guide Rock, 1st, Vint Johnston Red Cloud, 2nd.
Sack race: Wm. Messenger Guide Rock, 1st, Boyd Ambersen Superior, 2nd.
Fat man's race: Chas. Snyder, North Branch, Kas., 1st.
Boys' race: Dennis McCartney 1st, Russel Jones 2nd.
Horse race, 1/4 mile: Jno. Doyle 1st, McConnell, Guide Rock, 2nd.
Pony race: Jno. Doyle 1st, McConnell, Guide Rock, 2nd.
The three free entertainments on the streets banished the monotony of the day. Each company had an excellent act and interested the crowd in fine shape. The electrical display also drew out much favorable comment.
Red Cloud's celebration was a sane and safe fourth operated along original but successful lines.
Acceptance of Congregational Church Challenge
Believing that the church should occupy the largest possible place in the social and amusement life of the community and believing that it will enhance the fraternal spirit between our men, therefore we take this opportunity to accept the challenge for a ball game between the Methodist and Congregational men of Red Cloud date and plans to be made as per their suggestion, by a committee from each church.
Signed,
Committee of M. E. Men.

stiff breeze uncomfortable.
An electric fan will keep flies off from windows, show cases, candy and food stuff exposed for sale, or from vegetables, if allowed to play over the place or wares to be protected. More than one merchant has found the electric fan invaluable to keep flies out of the store. By placing a fan near the main entrance, so that the air current flows towards the doorway, very few flies will enter. Flies take little comfort in a room where an electric fan is in operation.
Aside from keeping the rooms cool and sweet the electric fan is very valuable to drive away flies. This deadliest of all household pests likes stagnant air, hot and stuffy rooms and is not found at all where the air is pure, clean and vigorously stirring.

EARLY CULTURE IN MEXICO

Existence of Highly Civilized Prehistoric People There Revealed by Antique Pleasure Garden.
That an unknown, highly cultured people, of whom neither history, tradition nor legend has preserved any record, flourished in or near the Valley of Mexico and enjoyed spiced chocolate and aromatic beverages from transplanted tropical fruits grown by them in a marvelously built garden at Oaxtepec from 1,500 to 2,000 years ago is the latest theory of Guillermo Telles regarding the recently discovered garden of Montezuma.
Mr. Telles applied to the department of public instruction for a special permit to make explorations in the garden. He states that concerning twenty-one successive caelques on the land, with codices in possession of the National Museum has led him to believe that the garden has great antiquity.
He has been devoting a large part of four years to studying the plants found there. Through the inscriptions he has been able to glean historical data concerning twenty-one successive caelques. Tropical trees, flowers and fruits were transplanted from the Isthmus of Tehuantepec and Central America to this garden, and there were grown coconuts, vanilla, parrots, yolloxochitl, mezacochitl and another rare flower which gives off its odor in the night.
These plants and their friends were ingredients of the delicious chocolates which were the favorite beverages of the Aztec lords when Cortes arrived. The garden was visited by Acamapixtli and Ilhucamina, the second named being identical with Montezuma. It is claimed that Montezuma Ilhucamina appropriated this beautiful garden to his personal royal uses and pleasure. —Mexican Herald.

Flies Fear Electric Fan

Practically the only thing a fly (or a mosquito) is afraid of is an electric fan. Why this little pest should fear the whirling fan is a mystery. Perhaps it does not like the sullen hum of the motor, or is afraid of being sucked into the whirling blades or finds the
