Something About Our Chautauqua Talent

Dr. Frank Crane: For several years preacher at the Chicago university; for seven years pastor at the great Union church, Worcester, Mass.; for two years editorial writer on Chicago Tribune, a contributor to Atlantic monthly, Century and McClure's; author and poet.

Dr. G. E. Maguire: Has the distinction of being the first white man to go up the Congo after Stanley came down for seven years an explorer in the wilds of Africa; his subject: "With an Irishman Through the Jungles of Africa."

C. F. Wheeler: A globe trotter who has studied farms and farm life in all parts of the world in order to present "The Romance of the Reaper" in an illustrated lecture.

Tahou—A life story: A white child, a Kiowa captive, a paleface savage, captured by Custer, an Indian soldier, a deserter, a military prisoner, a hunted wanderer, a converted savage, and now a widely read author and distinguished lecturer.

Dr. H. V. Adams: For five years an editor; for four years an instructor in law; for ten years pastor of the leading church, Des Moines, Iowa; now exclusively devoted to lecturing.

C. F. Burgerfer: Simply a funny man. His advent was a joke, his life is a joke, his demise will be no joke.

Lulu Tyler Sates: Impersonator, reader, monologist, in repertoire: "Sky Pilot," "Nance Oldfield," "Monsieur Beaucaire," "A Grand Army Man," "A Servant in the House," "The Prince of India."

Gov. Richard Yates, ex-governor of Illinois.

E. N. Tompkins, who has conducted many large parties through Yellowstone park, will lecture on "A Trip Through God's Out of Doors," illustrated by 200 views.

Chicago Ladies' Orchestra: This organization is probably the best of its kind presented by any Chautauqua in America today. We do not hesitate to say that this organization has no superior anywhere.

Forbes' Juvenile Pipe Band: The company consists of sixteen musicians, one humorist and entertainer, one lady bag-pipe and soprano soloist. The program consists of band music, marches, drills, reels, dances, etc.

Ferguson Jubilee Singers: The Dixies are acknowledged to be the leading colored company in America. On Sunday evening they will sing "The Messiah."

Red Cloud Concert Band: Consists of twenty pieces; will furnish free outdoor concerts each evening.

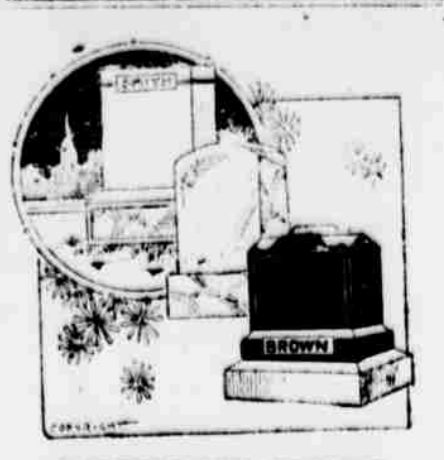

Red Cloud Orchestra: Consists of ten pieces. Both the concert band and orchestra are under the leadership of Prof. Betz. Prof. Betz has a state wide reputation as a musician and leader and under his able management has given Red Cloud two musical organizations classed among the best in the state.

Moving Pictures: The very best films have been secured, both in subject matter and grade of films. At considerable extra expense the management has secured the official films of the Passion Play at Oberammergau in 1910. The film is hand-colored and consists of three reels, each 1000 feet in length. The first and second reels will be given next Sunday evening and the third reel Monday evening, Tuesday's subject, "Picture Land"; Wednesday's subject, "Damon and Pythias," first reel; Thursday's subject, "Damon and Pythias," second reel; Friday, "Frontier Day at Cheyenne"; Saturday, "Romance of the Reaper"; Sunday, "Ben Hur."

The World's Greatest Aviators at Hastings

Hastings, Neb.—When Glenn H. Curtiss brings his world famed aviators to this city on July 18 and 19, the whole of Central Nebraska's population will be interested in giving them a rousing welcome, for this will be the first big aviation meet ever held in Central Nebraska and the biggest enterprise ever attempted by any commercial organization in the central west. The meeting is under the auspices of the Hastings Chamber of Commerce, which will insure all visitors a square deal in the matter of giving a full, bona fide program of feats by these "bird men."

Widow's Pension.
 The recent act of April 19th, 1908 gives to all soldiers' widows a pension of $12 per month. Fred Maurer, the attorney, has all necessary blanks.
