OTTUMWA WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Consider This Advice.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous medicine, made only from roots and herbs, has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, confidential, and always helpful.

A woman has about as much use for a man who doesn't admire her as a fatted calf has for a prodigal son.

With a smooth iron and DeFance Starch, you can launder your shirt-valet just as well at home as the steam laundry can.

Harold Knows the Signs. Five-year-old Harold's older sister was in the habit of making a good many demands on him.

"Now, Harold," she began one day, "you're a dear, sweet little boy, and you know I love you—"

"Well, Ethel," he said, earnestly, "if it's upstairs, I won't go."—Lippincott's Magazine.

PERFORMING POLICE DUTY. Officer Muldoon—That fellow's flirting with every servant girl on my beat.

Chalk (the milkman)—That's easy. Charge him with impersonating an officer!

A SPOON SHAKER. Straight From Coffeedom. Coffee can marshal a good squadron of enemies and some very hard ones to overcome.

"I have always been very fond of good coffee, and for years drank it at least three times a day.

"I became bilious, subject to frequent and violent headaches, and so very nervous, that I could not lift a spoon to my mouth without spilling a part of its contents.

"My heart got 'rickety' and beat so fast and so hard that I could scarcely breathe, while my skin got thick and dingy, with yellow blotches on my face, caused by the condition of my liver and blood.

"I made up my mind that all these afflictions came from the coffee, and I determined to experiment and see.

"So I quit coffee and got a package of Postum which furnished my hot morning beverage. After a little time I was rewarded by a complete restoration of my health in every respect.

"I do not suffer from biliousness any more, my headaches have disappeared, my nerves are as steady as could be desired, my heart beats regularly and my complexion has cleared up beautifully—the blotches have been wiped out and it is such a pleasure to be well again."
