Reasons Why the Great Majestic You Should Buy

- 1st. It has the reputation of being the best range that money can buy.
  - 2d. It not only has the reputation but IS the best range made, and we will prove this to you if you will let us.
  - 3d. It is constructed of malleable iron, material you can't beat, and of Charcoal iron, material that resists rust 300 per cent greater than steel, is riveted together air tight. No heat escapes or cold air enters the range, thus uses very little fuel to do perfect work.
  - 4th. The reservoir alone is worth the price of range over any other reservoir made. It boils 15 gallons of water; is heated like a tea kettle, with pocket against left hand lining, and is movable and sets on a frame, hence cannot wear out. When water gets too hot it can be moved away from the fire.
- Majestic Ranges use less fuel; heat more water—and heat it hotter; costs practically nothing for repairs; lasts three times as long; bakes better; easier to keep clean and gives better satisfaction than any other range on the market. If you know positively that the above statements are true, wouldn't you buy a Majestic at once? Come in demonstration week and we'll prove it to you.

LATEST CURE FOR "NERVES"

Walking Barefoot on the Sands of the Seashore Advised by Medical Specialist.

Walking barefoot on the sands of the sea is the latest cure for nerves, says a well-known medical specialist in St. Louis.

"The good qualities of sea sand, which in many ways, is as health-giving as ozone, have been universally overlooked by holiday makers," he said.

"One of the most soothing and beneficial cures for a tired business man can obtain is that of walking barefoot on the sand by the seashore.

"The nerves on the sole and ball of the foot are slightly irritated by the small grains of sand, and, so stimulated, setting up an increased circulation of blood throughout the body.

"Mentally this exercise has a most invigorating effect. The nerves of the feet telegraph to the brain, as it were, how comfortable and refreshed they feel, and the brain responds by feeling comfortable and refreshed too.

"If you do not want to walk barefoot wear shoes—not boots—so that the sand may get in over the tops and at your feet.

"Then there is the soothing monotony of the sands. The long, flat stretches of yellow sand have a soporific effect on the mind—they induce a feeling of rest and detachment from the worries of the world.

"Some enterprising man also should open hot seasand baths at some resort, just as there are mud or earth baths at certain German spas. These baths are very beneficial in cases of rheumatism and neuritis."

GOT THE MEAT HE DEMANDED

Grumpy Man Wanted Restaurant Window Sample and the Paint on it Blistered.

Stepping into a small restaurant, a grumpy old man demanded of the waiter a certain piece of meat he had in the show window.

"But," said the waiter, "we—"

"No buts," replied the old man. "You bring me what I ask for, or I won't get anything here at all."

Rather than lose a customer the waiter did as he was told, and, getting the piece of meat, took it back to be cooked.

After a long wait the meat was brought to the customer, who, instead of thanking the waiter, said: "Look here, you man, what is the matter with this meat?"

"Nothing is the matter with it, sir, except that the paint on it has formed a few blisters from the heat."

"Why, what do you mean by that?" asked the old man.

"Simply this," replied the waiter. "These pieces of meat you saw in the window were not made to eat. They were made for advertising purposes, but you insisted, sir, upon having one of 'em."

Why "Jack Robinson" is Quick.

A. Foxen Ferguson of Oxford university, speaking of the old-time ballads, said that as most of the public executions took place in some park or market-place, where everybody could be present, the onlookers oftentimes amused themselves by singing ballads giving the entire history of the victim, and this is the reason why so many of the old songs are concerned with the hangman and the gallows tree.

Particularly interesting also was his description of the origin of the expression "quicker than you can say Jack Robinson," heard so often in both England and America. It came, he said, from an old ballad about a sailor named Jack Robinson, who returned to Portsmouth, England, to find his old sweetheart married to another. The poor sailor vowed that he would roam the seas forever, which he set out to do almost before his friends realized what he was doing. They called after him, but he had gone.—Boston Transcript.

Planning the House.

"Well," said Gifford Berrington, cheerfully, "I've got the plans for my new house on the lake shore all finished."

"Finished to suit you?"

"No-no. But the architect is satisfied, and that's the best I can expect."

"Ha, ha! How about Mrs. Berrington?"

"It's all right with her, too. In fact, she got that fixed before we started. You see, she laid out the cupboards and wardrobes, and all the architect had to do was to build a house around them."

Stronger Than Sympathy.

"I am glad to see, anyhow, that you sympathize with the under dog in this barbarous fight."

"Sympathize with 'em? Gosh, mister, all the money I've got up on that dawg!"

All the Attractions.

"This seems to be quite a progressive town," said the stranger.

"Oh, yes," the native proudly replied, "the big cities ain't got nothing on us. We've just finished a hotel that has a mezzanine floor."

Expensive Schooling.

"Experience is the best teacher."

"Well, she ought to be; her teaching comes mighty high."

Training for the Ministry.

Nothing is more necessary to the community, whatever the religious opinion of its members may be, than the steady and constant supply of men of high education, of consecration, of careful training, of inspiration and of lives devoted in act and word to the service of the divine and of humanity. Unless such men are in the community its great moral forces will cease to have their expression, their direction, their inspiration and their representation.

It is, therefore, to be regretted that, in spite of the many movements, particularly through our Young Men's Christian association, which has been active during the last decade as never before, the supply of clergymen is not keeping up with the growth of the country, but it is gratifying that this supply is increasing. It is notable, however, that the share of those who become clergymen with a college education is decreasing. Down to 1895 the schools which require college training furnished about two-thirds of the total number of men fitting for the ministry. In 1910 they furnished one-half, or 3,815 out of the total number, which, including 312 women, was 7,587.—Philadelphia Press.

A Lucky Beggar.

Robert Newman telephoned the police:

"I want you to find my trousers," he said.

"Did you look under the mattress?" asked the telephone clerk in the chief's office.

"No," said Newman.

"Give me the description," he said.

"All right. The number on the case is 5574589 and the number on the works is 5133475.

"What are you talking about, anyway?"

"My watch."

"I thought it was your trousers."

"Yes, the watch was in the trousers pocket. A beggar called here and asked me to give him a pair of trousers. I did. After he was gone I discovered I gave him the ones with my watch in them. Find that beggar, will you?"

—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Article Not Wanted.

Little Jimmy Patterson, visiting with his mother's family in the Alhambra apartment, was taken to call on some friends on the South side. On the way home his auntie discovered stuck into his shoe top a beer opener.

"Why, James!" she exclaimed, "what will the people do without this article?"

"Oh," replied James, "they all wear laced shoes. Not one of them wears button shoes."

They have no use for beer openers in his family.—Cleveland Leader.
