C. F. Ely, wife and daughter returned Tuesday from their summer sojourn at Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. Cross and Mrs. Klinkhammer of Cheyenne, Wyo., visited Tuesday and Wednesday with their brother John Delay.

Mr. Miner, wife and two children from Amazonia, Mo., have been the guests of William Miner and wife. The men are cousins.

Mrs. Rosalitha Ayer of Bostwick and son Wilbur visited in Guide Rock Thursday and Friday. Mr. W. Ayer has just returned from Cuba.

Mrs. C. L. Boles entertained the "sparklers club" Friday afternoon. Twelve ladies were in attendance. Games were played and lunch was served.

The Degree of Honor were entertained Tuesday evening at close of lodge. Several of the members served sandwiches, pickles, cake and coffee.

E. A. Hendrickson and his assistants are remodeling the residence of Clarence Guy. When it is completed Mr. and Mrs. A. Horn, parents of Mrs. Guy will live with them as Mrs. Horn is in poor health.

COWLES

Miss Mabel Fuller and brother Fred arrived in the city from Bethany this week.

Miss Olive Foe was on the sick list last week but is improving at this writing.

Mrs. J. R. Morse and Mrs. M. H. Davis were in Hastings between trains on Thursday.

We are glad to see Ernest Terrill on the streets again after a long siege with blood poison.

Rev. Deakin has purchased lots of Mrs. Bennett and will soon build a commodious home thereon.

Mrs. Nola Herrick and baby of Red Cloud spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ritchey.

Mrs. E. E. Davis departed on Wednesday morning for Beatrice to spend the winter with her sister.

Miss Vera Brubaker returned Monday from Campbell where she has been the past few weeks assisting in the bank.

Harry McTaggart has sand on the ground preparatory to the erection of a seven room house on his lots on Fourth street.

Chas. C. Bennett accompanied by his wife and daughter departed Thursday for Columbus, Kas., where he has business interests.

The old restaurant building is being torn down and remodeled which is a good idea as it was very unsightly as well as dangerous.

McBride, Saunders and Deakin went to the river duck hunting last week, they returned Friday. Their "catch" hardly supplies the demand for ducks.

On Friday morning of last week Mr. Jones, the plaster man, and his lady quietly stole away to Red Cloud and were married but the secret leaked out and Saturday night they were entertained by a serenading party.

GARFIELD

A slight frost the last few nights. George Coon and sons were on wind mill row Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Simpson of Red Cloud spent Sunday with their son-in-law, Clyde Simpson and wife.

The rainy season has broke away and we are having fine weather for the people to finish sowing wheat.

Tom Hawkins and Sherman Shipman are a couple of Garfield's lucky ones to get cattle to feed this winter.

John Wittwer, the well man, was on wind mill row Monday. He fixed Smith Bros' wind mill and Will Fisher's pump.

Bryan Spoke Last Night to Large Crowd. Enthusiastic Meeting.

Hon. W. J. Bryan arrived a little behind schedule time last night and addressed an audience of about one thousand people last night from the stand on the corner of Webster street and Fourth Avenue. With him was Judge Dean and Stark and also Clarence E. Harmon candidate for railway commissioner. Mr. Bryan began his address by introducing the gentlemen who were with him. He showed why each was especially fitted for the office. He next introduced Judge Harry S. Dungan and in well chosen words spoke highly of the Judge's record in the army camp life of the Spanish American war. He testified to Judge Dungan's worth as a man and as an official. This part of the address brought forth enthusiastic applause. Mr. Bryan then spoke feelingly of his relations with W. A. McKeighan in the halls of congress and urged the voters to remember his daughter, Edith, who is seeking the election to the office of clerk of the district court. Then Mr. Bryan began to speak of things concerning the nation and for nearly an hour held his audience as only he can. The speaker showed that he was still a master in the art of word painting, his eloquence and candor completely captivated his hearers. The remarks of the audience at the close of the meeting showed plainly that the people of Nebraska agree with the rest of the country that Mr. Bryan is still the most distinguished private citizen of the United States.

Owing to the fact that we were called away to Bloomington this morning we are unable to give an extended account of the address delivered by Mr. Bryan in this issue. However we have arranged to publish the major portion of the address next week.
