Grandma Alles came down from McCook one day last week and is visiting with friends in Garfield and canning apricots at Will Fishers.

Al Smith, E. Emerton and Jack Barnes were at Blue Hill Tuesday attending the Democrat convention and looking after other business.

Pleasantly Surprised

Saturday evening the relatives and many friends of Mr. Otto Skjelver Sr., expressed their love and respect for him by pleasantly surprising him at his home in Catherton precinct.

About eight o'clock the people gathered at the home of A. A. Cooper who is one of Mr. Skjelvers nearest neighbors. When all were assembled they started for the Skjelver home. When they arrived Rev. Laude voiced the sentiment of the people—whogave Mr. Skjelver a gold chain and a large comfortable chair. The evening was spent in singing and social chatting. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served and not until the wee hours of morning did the people depart for their various homes after spending one of the most enjoyable evenings.

Mr. Skjelver is one of the first settlers in this vicinity and he has done much to build up the community and has always lended a helping hand when it was needed.

Probate of Foreign Will.

Notice is hereby given that a petition has been filed by Frank A. Coulson in the County Court of Webster County, Nebraska, praying that the instrument therewith presented and filed purporting to be a copy of the will of Henry A. Glidden, deceased, late of Orleans County, New York, and of the probate thereof duly authenticated and praying that said instrument be allowed as the last will and testament of said deceased, and the copy filed and recorded and the will admitted to probate to have the same force and effect as if originally proved and allowed in this court.

Whereupon I have fixed the 10th day of August 1912 at ten o'clock a. m. at which time all persons interested shall appear at the County Court in Red Cloud, Webster County, Nebraska, and attend the probate of said will and show cause if any exist, why the said instrument should not be admitted to probate and record as prayed for.

It is further ordered that notice be given by the publication of this order for three weeks successively in the Red Cloud Chief prior to said day of hearing.

Dated July 16, 1912. A. B. HANNEY, County Judge.

L. H. BLACKLEDGE, Attorney for Petitioner.
