The Democratic County Convention

Pursuant to a call by the County Chairman the regularly nominated democratic electors of Webster county met in convention at Blue Hill on Tuesday of this week at 11 o'clock to elect delegates to the state convention at Grand Island July 30th, for the election of a county central committee and for the transaction of any other important business that might present itself at the convention.

After the usual reading of the call for the convention by Chairman C. B. Hale, a motion was made and unanimously carried that the present chairman and secretary continue in office for another term, which demonstrated the fact that the services of Chairman Hale and Secretary Hutchison have been highly satisfactory in the past.

After the appointment of the usual committee on resolutions, the convention adjourned until 1:30 p. m., at which time everything was in readiness and the unfinished business before the convention was harmoniously and speedily disposed of. The following delegates being duly elected to the state convention: C. B. Hale, V. S. Hall, Wm. Patterson, Ed. Payne, Geo. Hutchison, J. K. Martin, Frank Deleghoyde, Bernard McNeny, J. L. Christian, Elmo Goos and Alf McCall.

Enthusiastic speeches were made by McNeny and Christian of Red Cloud and Steward of Line township which closed a most successful session and helped to stimulate activity in the campaign now before the democrats of Nebraska who are sure of success at the coming election in November.
