In Memoriam

Died at her home in our city August 23, 1912, Miss Mildred Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Stevens, aged 22 years, 3 months and 5 days.

In the death of Miss Stevens we fully and keenly realize our loss. She was a true friend, and her devotion in those she loved would make a bright chapter in any life. Nothing but the thought of the loving hand that has removed her can reconcile us to her absence. While she has gone from the scene, the conflicts, the sorrows and pleasures of life, she will still live in the hearts of those who knew her best. Her retiring nature led her to hide her best qualities from public gaze, but they were revealed to those who enjoyed her acquaintance, yet it was in her home that her true worth was most conspicuous. She was a kind, loving daughter, and her devotion to the family circle had no limit. Her future was full of promise, and we dare not ask why she was taken from us in her prime, unless, as flowers are plucked before the frost finds them that we may not witness their decay. It is sad, indeed, to see one so well equipped for life taken so unexpectedly, yet for her there was no standing on the borderland, gazing into the unknown, for death came as the sunset dies along the hills when the day is over. A life that imparts such lessons is well worth living.

"But now she sleeps where the daisies nod,
 And the clover hangs its head,
 Where the wild birds come and the wild bees hum,
 Above her lonely bed.
 She fought the fight, she kept the faith,
 Her fame shines bright and clear,
 And her memory lives in all our hearts,
 Which will hold it ever dear."

The funeral services were held at the M. E. church Monday afternoon. Rev. E. N. Tompkins, pastor of the M. E. church, officiated and paid a fitting tribute to her memory.
 Interment took place in the city cemetery. The Royal Neighbor lodge of which she was a member conducted the last rites at the grave.
 She leaves a father and mother and four brothers and three sisters, and a large number of friends to mourn her death.

Card of Thanks

We the undersigned wish to take this means of thanking the kind friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the illness and loss of our dear daughter and sister, and for the beautiful floral tributes and remembrances of sympathy which have made our sorrow easier to bear.
 Signed:

MR. AND MRS. CLARK STEVENS
 AND FAMILY
