W. C. T. U. Picnic
 The ladies of the W. C. T. U., of Red Cloud (and some of the Honorary members) met in Heffelbower's grove Thursday, Sept. 12. Mr. Heffelbower had erected a long table in the grove and the bounties that was spread on it was fit for a King. A large number of persons surrounded the table and were loth to leave it. After dinner they assembled in the house and the meeting was opened by the president, Rev. Rose led the devotional exercises. They proceeded to business, elected their delegates to the state convention to be held at Central City, Sept. 24 to 27. A short program was given after which Rev. Rose of the Christian church gave them a short address, commended them for their zeal and the righteousness of the cause hoping they may see their labors richly rewarded. The meeting was closed with song and prayer. Their host and hostesses invited them to the grove to feast on water melon and musk melon and to which they done justice. A vote of thanks were given Mr. and Mrs. Heffelbower and family for their kindness and generosity.

JAS. HUBATKA, Committeeman.

Our band boys under the leadership of Prof. Betz are loud in their praise of the Dundy county fair held at Benkelman last week. They received the very best treatment possible and the good people of that city spared no pains in making the stay of the band boys pleasant and agreeable. The fair itself was a success in point of displays and entertainment and it goes without saying that the people of Dundy county know how to conduct an affair of that kind. They were so pleased with our band that they secured their services for next year.

The complete programs for the Webster county Fair are now out. The management has certainly arranged for a splendid program and anyone attending this year will be assured of a royal good time. This county needs a meeting of this character where we can get together, exchange experiences, see the results of our own efforts, and at the same time have a judicious amount of pleasure and recreation. The fair this year will undoubtedly far surpass anything of previous years and we predict that it will be a genuine success. We admonish all people of the county to make their plans now so they may attend this event.

The following named preachers were assigned to different appointment by the Nebraska M. E. conference:
 Bladen—W. H. Jackson.
 Blue Hill—E. S. Burr.
 Cowles—J. W. Davis.
 Guide Rock—E. L. Barch.
 Inavale—M. C. Smith.
 Kenesaw—E. B. E. Hill.
 Nora and Cadams—T. C. Priestly.
 Red Cloud—E. N. Tompkins.
 Roseland—J. E. Rippetoe.

The Nebraska Conference which has just closed its annual session has returned the Rev. E. N. Tompkins to the pastorate of the Methodist church for the coming year. This arrangement is exceeding agreeable not only to the members of the church but also to this city as a whole. During his two years work here Rev. Tompkins has built up a large congregation and place the church on a good substantial footing. We are pleased that he will be with us another year and trust that the Methodists will make some arrangement whereby he may become one of us permanently.

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock Dr. David D. Sanderson and Miss Bernice Potter were united in marriage. Rev. John J. Bayne, pastor of the Congregational church performed the ceremony, which took place at the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potter. After the ceremony the wedding supper was served. The groom is well known in our city as one of our most successful young physicians and the bride is one of our popular young ladies. The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. Sanderson unite in extending to the happy couple their best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

Will thou take her for thy "pard," for better or for worse; to have, to hold, to fondly guard, till hauled off in the hearse? Will thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes, make the fires up every day, and help her with the dishes? Will thou give her all the "stuff" her little purse will pack buy her a monkey box and muff, a little seal skin ascot? Will thou comfort and support her father, mother, Aunt Jemima, Uncle John, 13 sisters and a brother? And his face grow pale and blank, it was too late to jilt; as through the chapel floor he sank he sadly said "I wilt."

At the instigation of two boys under age, who were found to be drinking on the streets Saturday evening, Marshal Rogate arrested Ray Goddon of whom the boys state they received the liquor. Chairman Cox and E. J. Solomon representing the village went to Red Cloud Monday and filed complaint. The papers were then turned over to J. A. Denton who took young Goddon to Red Cloud Tuesday where the time for hearing the case was set for Wednesday at one o'clock in Judge Ranney's court. At the hearing Judge Ranney decided the evidence was not sufficient to bind the accused over and dismissed the case. The incident, however, should be a lesson to the boys and convince them that it is not the manly thing to do to in any way get mixed up in such deals.—Bladen Enterprise.
