BE ON THE SAFE SIDE

It is true that you are not likely to lose your savings if deposited in any good bank—but you are ABSOLUTELY CERTAIN NOT to lose them when you deposit where you have the additional protection of the State Guaranty Law. Such protection is offered you here.

It is surely "good business" to deposit where you get absolutely guaranteed protection, in preference to placing money in a bank that guarantees nothing.

The State Guaranty Law is behind every dollar deposited in this bank, and when you open an account here, you are ON THE SAFE SIDE.

The National Women's Christian Temperance Union

The Women's Christian Temperance Union is the largest society composed exclusive of women and conducted entirely by them. It is organized in every state, territory and dependency in the Union, including the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, Canal Zone and the Philippines and locally in 12000 towns and cities. There are also a number of separate state unions among the colored people. Its motto is, "For God and Home and Native Land." Its badge, a knot of white ribbon. Its 45 departments are grouped under six chief heads: 1st, Organization; 2nd, Preventive; 3rd, Educational; 4th, Evangelistic; 5th, Social; 6th, Legal.

Declaration of Principles

We believe in the coming of His Kingdom, whose service is perfect freedom, because His laws, written in our members as well as in nature and in grace, are perfect, converting the soul.

We believe in the gospel of the Golden Rule and that each man's habits of life should be an example safe and benificent for every other man to follow.

We believe that God created both man and woman in His own image, and therefore we believe in one standard of purity for both men and women, and in the equal right of all to hold opinions and to express the same with equal freedom.

We believe in a living wage; in courts of conciliation and arbitration; in justice as opposed to greed of gain; in "peace on earth and good-will to men."

We therefore formulate, and for ourselves adopt the following pledge, asking our sisters and brothers of a common danger and a common hope, to make common cause with us, in working its reasonable and helpful precepts into the practice of everyday life:

I hereby solemnly promise, God helping me, to abstain from all distilled, fermented and malt liquors, including wine, beer and cider, and to employ all proper means to discourage the use of and traffic in the same.

To confirm and enforce the ratification of this pledge, we declare our purpose to educate the young; to form a better public sentiment; to reform, so far as possible, by religious, ethical and scientific means, the drinking classes; to seek the transforming power of Divine grace for ourselves and all for whom we work, that they and we may wilfully transcend no law of pure and wholesome living; and finally we pledge ourselves to labor and to pray that all these principles, founded upon the gospel of Christ, may be worked out into the customs of society and the laws of the land.

Greatest National Prohibition Victory Ever Won

The veto of President Taft of the Kenyon-Webb Bill has been overridden by both houses of Congress. On February 28, the Senate, by a vote of 68 to 21, repassed the measure, and, on March 1, the House of Representatives, by a vote of 244 to 95 took similar action.

I thank God I have lived to see the day, when the representatives of the American people will answer on the roll call with their votes; the entreaties and imploring prayers of millions of country-serving, God-fearing, home-loving men and women. This day, O men, we who hold high station, can dedicate one vote to liberty, country, God, and home and re-dedicate the Constitution to the people and withdraw it forever as a bulwark for that conglomeration of cormorants who debauch manhood, slaughter womanhood, butcher childhood, and crucify babyhood on the cross of alcohol.—Representative Roddenberry of Georgia.

A Poll of the PressWhat Various Papers Say of the Kenyon-Webb Victory

"This measure is the most far-reaching piece of anti-liquor legislation ever put before Congress," says the Washington correspondent of the New York Times.

"That the people believe in the fundamental morality of the measure," says the Richmond Times-Despatch, "is proven by the vote in the House."

"The victory for the bill is regarded as the severest blow ever dealt the liquor traffic." are the words of the Nashville Banner.

The surprisingly triumphant passage through Congress of the long delayed legislation stopping interstate shipments of liquor to points where state laws prohibit its sale, is the most spectacular victory and in some respects the most significant one—that temperance sentiment ever obtained in this country.—The Continent.

The opponents of the measure say that from the day it becomes a law the breweries and distilleries of the country will begin to dwindle as commercial assets, and that by the time the "end of diminishing" is reached the business will be one-half what it is today and that there will be a corresponding shrinkage in the field of present employment in that line.—Chicago Evening Post.

The passage of this measure has meant a signal triumph for the temperance people of the United States, while it will be a heavy blow to the liquor interests.—Nashville Tennesseean.

The fact remains that no one event in the last quarter of a century has given the brewery interests as hard a blow as this law. They will fight with all their power in the future, but they might just as well try to stem the tide or the waves of the ocean. Prohibition as the remedy for the drink traffic has come to stay.—Kansas Issue.
