C. M. Smith spent a few days the latter part of the week in Franklin attending to business affairs.

Mrs. M. W. Carter and daughter, Bertha, left for Nelson on Monday morning to spend several days visiting.

Editor Lane of The Blue Hill Leader favored our editorial chambers with his presence for a short time on Wednesday.

Jacob Carpenter, aged 91 years, father of A. H. Carpenter of this place died at his home in Franklin Friday morning.

John G. Potter and wife returned Sunday from Oklahoma points where they had been for some time past visiting with relatives.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lindsey died Sunday morning. The funeral services were held from the home Monday afternoon.

E. J. Overing, Jr., returned on Sunday from Wray, Colorado, and western Nebraska points where he had been attending to business matters.

Geo. Hollister has returned from McCook where he went to attend the funeral of an employee of the C. B. & Q., who died at that place on Thursday.

Miss Marie Hollister is spending a short vacation from her studies at the state university, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hollister of this place.

Miss Josephine Fox, a teacher in the schools at Biaden, returned to her duties Monday after being called here to attend the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. Beauchamp.

Do you notice that J. H. Bailey is making the most of the farm loans? He is sole agent for Trevett, Mattis & Baker, and is offering the best rates, terms and option in the market and that is the reason.

Private Sale of Furniture, rugs, etc., good as new, also a 3 year old driving horse, weight 1000 lbs., sound and gentle, not afraid of steam or autos. Also buggy and harness, etc. Must sell before April 7th.—WILL U. C. CRIDER, Both phones.

The citizens mass convention was held in the court house on last Thursday evening, and a very strong ticket was placed in the field, which will be found elsewhere in this issue. The selections made are good ones and the ticket is worthy the support of all.

Miss Blanch Gross, who formerly resided with her mother at this place until about three years ago, when she left for Brush, Colorado, where she has been teaching school, died at that place the first of the week. The remains are to be brought here for interment.

Mrs. M. J. Beauchamp aged 72 years, who up until two years ago, had resided with her husband in this county since 1872, died at Superior last Wednesday. The remains were brought to this city for interment and the funeral services were held on Sunday. She leaves a husband and five children to mourn her death.

Yesterday was "Bargain Day" and judging by the numbers who took advantage of The Chief's Bargain Day Offering we would pronounce it a huge success. We were busy the entire day writing receipts and a glance at the standing of The Chief's Auto Contestants, to be found elsewhere in this issue will show, to some extent, how the citizens recognized a real bargain. So far as we have learned all the stores participating in the event enjoyed a heavy patronage.

J. F. Drain, who for some time past has resided on a farm northwest of the city, died on Friday morning after being sick for more than a year from a complication of diseases. The deceased was about 60 years of age and had resided in this county for about 15 years. Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon, Rev. Bayne officiating. The services at the grave were conducted by the I. O. O. F., lodge of which he was a member. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his death.

Howard Foe, Phil Sherwood and Jack Cather who are attending the state university at Lincoln, are spending a short vacation with the home folks.

Cyrene Commandery will participate in Easter services at the M. E. church on next Sunday morning, March 23rd. All Sir Knights are requested to meet in the Masonic hall at 10:30 sharp.

The Hillman Ideal Stock Company held the boards at the opera house the first three nights of the week. The show was well patronized and was up to the usual high class entertainments given by this popular company.

L. M. Wittwer and wife of Vermillion, South Dakota, who have been visiting at the home of his father Fred Wittwer, south of town, for the past week, returned to their home Tuesday. His sister, Miss Anna Wittwer accompanied them home.

Russell Jones, who was injured some time ago by the accidental discharge of a shot gun, while out hunting with some young companions, has so far recovered as to be able to leave Sunday for Stella, Nebr., where he will visit relatives for some time.

Special Easter music at both services at the Congregational church. Subject of sermon Sunday Morning: "The Immortal Hope". In the evening at 5:30 the pastor will lecture on: "David Livingstone, Explorer, Empire Builder, Philanthropist and Missionary".

The many friends of Grandma Rife, who has been seriously ill at Beatrice, for some time, will be pleased to hear that she is rapidly getting back to normal. It did not prove necessary to perform the operation which had been planned, and the esteemed lady was able to sit up for a while on last Sunday.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors who assisted us during the sickness and death of our wife and sister.—W. P. Kuehn, Fred W. Kuehn, Norie Farrell, Lucinda Patno, Josie Boyd.

J. M. Deek will on Saturday, March 29, open a 5 and 10 cent store in the Geo. Lindsey building, recently vacated by Weesner, Perry & Company. The building has been treated to a new coat of bright red paint, and the necessary shelving, etc., is now being put in place. Both Mr. and Mrs. Deek come to our city with a number of years experience in conducting a store of this kind, and we extend to them a cordial welcome and are confident that they will receive a liberal patronage, as the field covered by a store of this kind to us, looks like a good one. Mrs. L. E. Deek will have charge of the store here.

POT POUR RI

This issue of The Chief marks the fifth one that has been edited by the various organizations of the city, and is the last one, the editor again getting back into the harness, after having spent what we are pleased to say, a very pleasant vacation.

In adopting this plan, we did so only with the one object in view, namely, that it would prove interesting to our readers, and we can say we are more than pleased with the outcome. It proved to excite more interest and attracted more attention than we had even anticipated and we feel that it also accomplished much good.

It made considerable extra work, which together with our usual amount of heavy advertising, made it necessary for us to get out a larger paper than common, and it was not done in an effort to "astonish the people with our brilliant efforts, etc."

Our plan, in the future, as well as in the past, is to make The Chief the best we know how, and while we do not lay claim to thirty years experience, we feel secure in saying that our experience is of sufficient width as to merit your confidence in any thing entrusted to us in our line, and that you will receive as neat and up-to-date work as is to be found anywhere.

We have no desire "to go over the hill to the poor house," nor can we see how we are to traverse this road by keeping The Chief in the front rank; by our putting forth our best efforts to give you the most for your money. But should we go, how great will be the solace to be found in the fact that our efforts were not entirely in vain, and that The Chief, under our leadership, reached a pinnacle of sufficient height as to be classed among the best.
