Harry Roats won the elegant Maxwell automobile which was given as a prize to the person securing the most subscribers to the Hastings Tribune. The car is valued at about $1800 and is certainly a fine one, and Harry is to be congratulated upon his success in winning the same, particularly as they were a number of contestants, all of whom put up a very stiff fight.

Last Sunday afternoon a large number of our base ball fans autoed to Blue Hill and witnessed two of the best games they had seen in many a day. The first game was played by Blue Hill and Lawrence and the former won the game by a score of 3 to 2. The last game was between Hastings and Kearney of the Nebraska State League and the latter won the game by a score of 2 to 1. There was over 1000 paid admissions to the game and about 200 autos were on the grounds. The next Sunday game that will be played at Blue Hill will be June 8, when Hastings and York will cross bats.

The High School Class Play, "A Russian Honeymoon" was presented last evening in the opera house to as large a crowd as could obtain admission. The play is to be repeated again on Saturday night.

The band concert on Sunday afternoon was up to the usual high order of concerts which are given by the popular band, under the efficient leadership of Prof. Betz, and The Chief's suggestion in regards to eliminating the noise, we are pleased to note, was fittingly observed. The concert was an all around success and we predict that they will prove very entertaining during the summer months.

Floyd Wilburn, the 21 year old son of T. N. Wilburn and wife, was found with the top of his head blown off by a shot gun, at an isolated spot on his father's farm 10 miles from Beaver City on Sunday morning. The young man had been missing since noon Saturday and a search was made for him with the above result. Floyd will be remembered by a good many here, they having formerly resided at this place.

Last Tuesday afternoon while assisting in moving a large plate glass, Paul Storey was rather severely lacerated. They were endeavoring to remove the glass down stairs, and it being too large, Paul took the hammer and broke a piece off one corner. The blow broke off a larger piece than anticipated and in falling it struck Paul on the ankle and cut a blood vessel. It was a painful accident, though not a serious one, and Paul is out again.

Chancy McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah McDowell, met with quite a bad accident Sunday. While coasting down a hill in a cart with some other playmates the cart turned over throwing them out in a barb wire fence. Chancy landed on his neck in the fence cutting a long gash and he obtained several other cuts which required a number of stitches to be taken by the doctor. He is now at the home of his sister Mrs. Ernest Davis.

Father Fitzgerald went to Superior Saturday.

School will close Friday for a three months' vacation.

Mrs. J. H. Robinson has been quite sick this week but is better at this writing.

Pete Arnold, of Invale, purchased a new Overland auto of Jas. Peterson Saturday.

Peter Hansen has moved his harness shop into the building formerly occupied by Joe Fogel.

Eugene Butler of Noreatur, Kansas, is visiting at the home of Ridge Leggett this week.

Floyd Turnure returned the latter part of the week from a short business trip to Lincoln.

Oris Fearn left Tuesday for Fairbury where he goes to teach the boys in the Journal office the art of printing.

The Degree of Honor will meet next Tuesday evening. Every member is requested to be present as there will be something doing.

Homer Sherwood of Salt Lake City, Utah, arrived in the city the latter part of the week, called here by the death of his mother.

Mrs. Cora Eldredge left Friday night for Naponee to visit her sister, Mrs. Ed. Gillard, before returning to her home at LaSalle, Colo.

I have the best rate in the county on farm loans. See me and be convinced. My motto--prompt service.

A. T. WALKER.

FOR SALE--J. I. Case Threshing Outfit; engine 25 horse power; separator 36x58. All in good running order. For full particulars phone or call on Varrick Brothers.

Do you notice that J. H. Bailey is making the most of the farm loans? He is sole agent for Trevett, Mattis & Baker, and is offering the best rates, terms and option in the market and that is the reason. adv.

Sanford Fox's horse became frightened on Tuesday morning and ran away. Sanford was thrown out of the wagon, but was not badly injured. It is hard luck Sanford, but if you must go riding so early in the morning try keeping a little tighter rein.

CASH FOR EGGS. Not a new proposition. This store has ALWAYS PAID CASH FOR EGGS or one cent more in trade, and will continue to do so. Other produce bought the same way. We make a cash or trade price, optional with our customer.--F. G. Turnure & Son. adv.

How shall the people of Red Cloud spend Sunday? will be the subject of the morning's sermon at the Congregational church. The second Stereopticon lecture on Africa, will be given Sunday evening. 76 beautifully colored slides made from photographs taken in the heart of Africa, will be shown. These include ten superb views of the Victoria Falls and six of the ruined city, Zimbabwe. The lecture is rich in pictures of African scenery and native customs and life. This will be the last of the Stereopticon lectures and we believe the most helpful, instructive and interesting. Everybody cordially welcomed to all services.

Last Saturday the Guide Rock ball team came up and crossed bats with our town team. It was a one sided game and our boys won the game by a score of 24 to 6. On Wednesday afternoon the Riverton boys came down and played our boys. It was the best game we have had here yet and the game lasted 11 innings. The score was a tie 5 to 5. With a little practice our boys could have the best team in the valley.

COWLES

Rev. Deakin is able to be out again after his recent sickness.

Mrs. T. L. Darnell is visiting relatives in Minden this week.

We are glad to see Leo Terrill out again after his long sickness.

Wm. Long of Bloomington is visiting his brother S. D. Long.

Our congenial banker, Jas. McBride, was in Red Cloud Tuesday evening.

Miss Ada Davis is home from Palmyra, where she has been teaching the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Thomas are in Colorado this week visiting their daughter, Mrs. Ida Errett.

Mr. Wolf of Indianapolis was in our city Monday. He is the prospective Principal of our schools next year.

The Memorial services held last Sunday at the M. E. church, were well attended and a good program was rendered.

Miss Velma Bradney of Bloomington has been visiting with Mrs. S. D. Long. She returned to her home Tuesday evening.

Miss Macy Spracher came home Tuesday night, from Liberty, where she has just finished a successful school year.

Miss Georgia Good and Mrs. Ida Squires went to Hastings Thursday to play at a public recital given by Prof. Rees' students at the Presbyterian church.

The "big" tent is on the grounds already for the school programs. By the time this is in print, the play will have been given, but we are sure the Operetta will be as good or better. Plan to go both nights.

Resolutions

In as much as it has pleased God in his wise providence to call from earth to himself one of our beloved charter members, Mrs. Frances S. Sherwood,

BE IT RESOLVED: That we the members of the W. C. T. U., bow in humble submission to the Divine Will of God--recognizing that he doeth all things well. We extend to her daughter Mrs. L. P. Albright with whom she lived and other relatives our deepest sympathy, realizing that human sympathy avails but little, only as it brings us in touch with the Divine Helper.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her family, another recorded in the minutes of the W. C. T. U., and one to each county paper.

Signed by the committee:

Mrs. Sarah Rust,
Mrs. Julia Warren,
Mrs. C. C. Cox,
Mrs. F. S. Dow.
