> The second part of the program was a feature. An operetta with ten parts was well fitted to be a closing climax. Both in acting and singing each of the ten scored the praise of those who heard them. In this, as in the play, was noted a splendid adaptibility of each to his part. We are safe in saying that few schools of the size and the standing of ours can equal these two events of last week.

These events mark the culmination last week. of two years have and persistent work on the part of the High School teachers.
