The very best investment any cow owner can make

That's what more than a million and a half of cow owners the world over have found the World's Standard De Laval Cream Separator to be.

A De Laval Separator costs from $35 to $160—according to capacity. It saves butter-fat and produces cream of a quality decidedly superior to any setting system or any other separator every time it is used—twice a day—730 times a year.

DE LAVAL Cream Separators

involve far less labor than any setting system, and run easier, have greater capacity and last from two to ten times longer than other separators.

That's how a De Laval Separator saves at least its cost the first year, and frequently in a few months, and then goes right along saving money for you year after year.

We have an arrangement whereby you can make a partial payment at time of purchase, and pay the balance on such liberal terms that your machine will more than save its own cost while you are paying for it.

It was an event long to be remembered by all present and Miss Madaline proved to be a very clever hostess.

On behalf of the citizens of this village we extend thanks to the people of Red Cloud for their invitation to celebrate July 4th in their fair city. Naponee will not celebrate this year and Franklin and Alma are lending their efforts toward their chautauquas. It seems, with such excellent train connections that we might send down a good crowd to the Webster county capital.—Naponee Herald.
