This Government Won't Put Its Money

In a bank that does not guarantee it against loss. Why Should You?

The United States will not deposit a dollar in a National Bank, on any other bank, unless the bank furnishes a bond for twice the amount deposited.

The United States Government can at any time make an investigation of any National Bank and learn all about its resources. But still the Government demands a guarantee for its deposits—why shouldn't YOU have protection.

Your deposits in this bank are protected by the State Guaranty Law—no matter what happens YOU CAN'T LOSE!

Union Service A Strong One

The service Sunday night was well attended. Mr Albright was called to the platform to lead the singing, and much interest and enthusiasm was aroused in this part of the exercises. Rev. Bayne acted as manager. Rev. Wagoner read the lesson and Rev. Cole preached the sermon. He took for his subject the invitation to the feast and insisted that the church devote its attention with more emphasis to the poor and needy, the people in the by-ways, streets, alleys and hedges. The church did not succeed in making these people feel at home within its doors, as it should. Church people did not evince their sympathy with the repentant sinner as they should. He told some very pointed stories relative to mission work in New York City. He might have told something more closely related to Red Cloud from his own experience. Mr. Cole, more than almost any minister Red Cloud has ever had is competent to preach a sermon on the topic he selected. More than most clergymen, his life, during his short stay among us, has been consecrated to bringing the gospel to the poor. He has not insisted upon the poor being brought to him, but he has gone out after them. He has not insisted on the prisoners being produced before him, but he has gone to the prison. He has visited the jail of this county more, possibly, than all the ministers who have been in Red Cloud, and he has been the means, under heaven, of setting more feet on the upward way than most of the clergymen of the city. He has apparently tried to fulfill literally the gospel injunction, of visiting the prisons. There is no doubt that he has won the respect of those outside the church for his genuine work in uplifting the lives of the downcast and defeated. He has come to be looked upon, in a special manner, as the friend of the weak and the fallen. Discouragements have met his efforts again and again, but he has persisted with a noble disregard of failure, and he has apparently been successful where none have heretofore hoped for success. He is a good example of the faith that comes by works, of the richness of human sympathy acquired by repeated practice of the enlargement of spiritual manhood by constant exercise.

Time Brings Many Changes

It was the boast of Ira Sleeper, the first blacksmith of Red Cloud, that he had roofed in more building than any man in Webster county. This was before the day of big barns. He pointed to the residence, since re-built, of Mr. McArthur, the building formerly occupied by Dr. Bowles, lately removed from the corner of Poplar street and Fourth Avenue to make room for the new McFarland structure, the old blacksmith shop just removed to make room for the new building which Mr. Hall is erecting, and the Overing building north of the livery stable. Mr. Sleeper bore the reputation of being a first class blacksmith, with the tools and conveniences of a half century ago, before gasoline engines furnished the power, when power welded hammers and power driven augurs for boring steel were not part of the equipment of a blacksmith shop. Mr. Sleeper first conducted his blacksmith shop across the creek east of town in a log shack. He subsequently purchased the quarter block fronting on Fourth Avenue and Cedar street. He erected the dwelling house in 1873, or spring of 1874, the blacksmith shop a short time before. The blacksmith shop has been added to, yet the old building was still there, and Mr. Hall has removed considerable dimension stuff of cottonwood, sawed out in the old saw mill of J. Q. Potter.

Buick Car Wins Endurance Race

The Lincoln Daily Star's Endurance Race, conducted under the auspices of the Lincoln Automobile Club, was won by Lee Huff, local manager at Lincoln of the Nebraska Buick Company, he driving a Model 31 Buick touring car. There were 21 automobiles in the contest, and about 81 people, they having spent last Tuesday night in this city. The race covered a distance of about 600 miles, and all the participants are loud in their praise of Nebraska roads, as well as the treatment which they received at every stop. However owing to the excessive heat, it was a hard race both for the driver and car. Mr. Huff is highly elated over his victory and says his success was due to the wonderful cooling efficiency of his motor, he receiving no penalty on account of being compelled to replenish his supply of water in the radiator, between the 100 mile patrols. We have ever held to the opinion that the Buick was an A 1 car, and no doubt, our friend John Havel, who is agent for them here, and who, by the way, has never overlooked an opportunity to tell of the wonderful advantages of this said Buick "Model 31," is likewise pleased over Mr. Huff's victory.

KANSAS PICKUPS (From Smith County)

Andrew Upp and family visited at Mr. Dunn's home Sunday. It is still dry in these parts and scarcely no feed in the pastures for the cattle. Miss Sarah Ann Green visited in Lebanon last week as the guest of Miss Ada Wagner. Misses Mamie and Dulcie Payne and Emma Ring are visiting relatives in Chase County, Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Ora Prill have returned from a visit in Yuma County, Colorado. They report the corn crop looking better there than here. Mrs. Bert Payne was called down to Crystal Plains, Sunday, on account of the illness of her father, Mr. Heath. Roy Upp and family have returned to their home near Yuma, Colo., after a two weeks' visit with relatives here. F. M. Brown and family, Mrs. Laura Morris and son Vernon and the Misses Johnson were visitors at the E. E. Spurrier home Sunday. If you are figuring on a corn crop in this unlucky year of '13 quit it. Try and be contented with a fair wheat and oats crop and the big first alfalfa cutting. Several families around here attended the second annual Chautauqua at Lebanon last week, which was enjoyed by all. The farmers did not show the interest this year as is usually shown in entertainments of this kind. For Sale:—A good milch cow, fresh. Inquire of W. E. White. adv

More Than 200,000 Papers Will Go Out of Nebraska

Omaha, Nebr., Aug. 5th—Additional newspapers, that will get out booster editions the third week in September, are coming in every mail to the Bureau of Publicity, through whose offices the details of the big campaign are being handled. Practically every county in the state is represented in the list to date and the number of papers that will go out of the state that week, has already gone way above the 200,000 mark. Many editors in the state are making extensive plans for their booster editions and when the third week in September rolls around, there will be many surprised people in different parts of the United States, when they receive copies of the various Nebraska papers. The state story, to be carried by all papers in the propaganda will consider Nebraska, among other things, as an agricultural state, as a dairying state, as a horse breeding state, as a live stock raising state, and as a state with superior railroad facilities. The data for the story is being assembled by the special committee in charge, Ross Hammond, C. C. Johns and E. V. Parrish, who hope to have the story arranged within the next three weeks. Mrs. Robbins went down to Superior Saturday morning to visit friends.

Red Cloud Has A New Barber Shop

M. T. Forsythe has opened up a barber shop in the basement of the Potter building. New cement stairs have been built to take the place of the old wooden ones, the room has been re-modeled, and with the fixtures and all which Mr. Forsythe has installed, and which by the way are necessary to properly conducted a first class shop, he has one of the neatest and most up-to-date tonsorial parlors in this community. Mr. Forsythe is an artist in his chosen line, and while he has installed a three chair shop, intends to hire only first class help, and to conduct an up-to-date place. He has moved his family here from Akron, Colorado, they moving into the Albright residence in the west part of town. The Chief extends to them the glad hand, and we are pleased to know they have decided to locate among us.
