To the Merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during Change of Life.

Westbrook, Me. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and had pains in my back and side and was so weak I could hardly do my housework. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. I will recommend your medicine to my friends and give you permission to publish my testimonial." — Mrs. LAWRENCE MARTIN, 12 King St., Westbrook, Maine.

Manston, Wis. — "At the Change of Life I suffered with pains in my back and loins until I could not stand. I also had night-sweats so that the sheets would be wet. I tried other medicine but got no relief. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use for six months. The pains left me, the night-sweats and hot flashes grew less, and in one year I was a different woman. I know I have to thank you for my continued good health ever since." — Mrs. M. J. BROWNELL, Manston, Wis.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled in such cases.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

UNREASONABLE THING TO ASK

Thirty Tourists Inclined to Be Filly Should Visit Ireland During the Winter Months.

Two New York men were touring Ireland last summer by automobile. On a hot July afternoon they came to an inn. Stopping, they went into the bar. A red-cheeked peasant girl was the barmaid. The travelers ordered Irish and soda. The girl served them and went on with her interrupted work of wiping the bar. One of the men tasted his drink and found it tepid.

"I say, my girl," he said, "won't you please put some ice in these drinks?"

Her mouth went wide open and the mopping cloth was poised in mid-air. Amaze held her silent for a moment. Then she found tongue in a hurry.

"Ice, is it? And who the — ever heard of ice in July?" Whereupon she fell to polishing again.

All Shades.

"Will you give me a lock of your hair?"

"Certainly. What color do you prefer, green, purple or cerise?"

STATE LEVY WAS HIGHER IN 1913

MUCH DISCUSSION REGARDING NEW STATE REFORMATORY.

GOSSIP FROM STATE CAPITAL

Items of Interest Gathered from Reliable Sources and Presented in Condensed Form to Our Readers.

Western Newspaper Union News Service. Taxes for all purposes in Nebraska averaged about 4 1/2 mills for the year 1913, according to a compilation made by Secretary Gaddis of the state tax commission, and this was 2 1/2 mills more than in the previous year. The state tax levy is blamed for the difference, having been boosted in 1913 from 5.2 mills to 7.8 mills, as a result of special levies voted by the legislature. The tax commission has figures from twenty-five counties giving the 1913 county tax, the highest levy in any city, and the total for all purposes in such cities. The gross tax in these cities ranges from 41.3 to 94.5 mills, the latter being a very extreme figure for Furnas county. Estimating the average tax for all communities, rural as well as urban, the tax commission thinks 4 1/2 mills to be about right.

Discuss New State Reformatory.

The question as to whether the new reformatory created by the last legislature shall exist as a part of or separate from the state prison has called out varying opinions. A number of views have been expressed along the line of a proposal made by A. L. Weatherly. His argument has been that the penitentiary is reformatory enough. Warden Fenton and others with the other side of the story, a side that has heretofore been given little publicity, take exception to any impression at large that reformatory ideas have not already crept into the prison. It is a reformatory along general lines with but one idea uppermost—the training of men to better fit themselves to be useful members of society. He favors the establishment of a sort of junior reformatory, but thinks it should be under a separate head.

Three Thousand More Signatures.

C. L. Rein, secretary to Chancellor Avery, has delivered a strong box containing some three thousand signatures to the university location petition to the state house. This completes the work of securing signatures and the question will be ready for submission to the voters at the November election. These last signatures cover the 2,877 which were stricken off by the secretary of state because of lack of county certification, many of the petitions designated as coming from certain counties being in reality from several counties. At the first filing of the petition there were 2,100 more names than would be actually required if it was supposed. With this addition to the petition it will make, excluding those contested, about three thousand more signatures than are necessary.

The seven executive state officials are to serve on the committee as members ex-officio.

Dr. Bessey Returns from Arizona.

Dr. Bessey, senior dean and head of the department of botany of Nebraska university returned last week after spending a month in the desert region surrounding Tucson, Arizona. He made a special study of the cactuses and other spiny plants, and will prepare papers to be given before several scientific organizations in the near future.

The school of pharmacy at the state university is planning to devote a week—the second in May—to showing its development.

A program of convocation, a banquet tendered to the state pharmaceutical association, and other activities of the students will go to make the week notable.

Systematic Crop Reports.

Systematic and thorough plans for gathering crop reports during the coming season have been perfected by Weather Man Loveland and Secretary Mellor of the board of agriculture. The data will be obtained on the 15th of each month and will include much information not before obtainable at one source. The change was made at the suggestion of several hundred farmers over the state, who watch for these reports with greater interest than in the past.

In Seventy Counties.

The Nebraska State Horticultural society has members in more than seventy counties in Nebraska, with the largest membership in the counties in the eastern part of the state. The object of this society is to help in all possible ways every person who is interested in trees, fruit, flowers and vegetable growing. The society desires to extend its membership so that every county in Nebraska will be receiving the benefits of the society's efforts and researches.
