EVERY wise farmer does what he can to save money, time, unnecessary hard work, and to have as pleasant a life as is possible.

Therefore, wise farmers buy International Harvester engines, engines of standard construction with features like the offset cylinder head, accurately ground piston and rings, extra large valves, detachable valve guides, split-hub fly-wheels—features that make them last by far the longest and save the most money in the end.

Be sure when you buy your engine that it is an IHC engine, and you will be sure of best material and best construction. They are made portable, stationary, or skidded; vertical or horizontal; air or water-cooled. Sizes range from 1 to 50-H.P. They operate on both low and high grade fuels.

Not every local dealer can show you International Harvester engines. Write us for interesting catalogues and full information, and we will tell you the name of the local dealer who handles our engines.

Quite a number are burning off the dead grass along the roadsides which is a good thing as it gives a degree of neatness and completeness to the appearance of the road and premises besides destroying myriads of chink bugs, but the exact number destroyed or injured I cannot at present give a correct estimate.

A few farmers planted potatoes during the past week but a good many others are holding back for Good Friday as it is said or believed that those planted on that great day will not be sure to be crowned with success. Owing to the large amount of land devoted to oats and alfalfa, etc., the average under crop will fall below that of 1913.

PETITION

In the Case of William Galbraith
From Webster County.

To His Excellency, John H. Morehead,
Governor of the State of Nebraska.

We, your petitioners respectfully pray that a pardon may be granted to William Galbraith, undergoing sentence for burglary, at the October 1913 term of the District Court, within and for Webster County, Nebraska, for the following reasons:

The said William Galbraith does not belong to the criminal class, but, when not under the influence of his appetite for liquor, is an industrious citizen and devoted to his family.

He was not, in the opinion of the majority of the people of Red Cloud, guilty of the crime charged against him. At the most, his offense is believed by us to be petty larceny from the railroad company, while he was intoxicated.

His friends here, knowing his weakness for liquor, thought his arrest a good opportunity to reform him in the matter of drink.

They persuaded him to plead guilty, assuring him that the sentence would be suspended under the provisions of 26641st Cobby's A Statute 1911. He acted under their advice. Judge Dungan suspended sentence, and at the suggestion of his friends, threatened him with the full penalties of the law if he again indulged in drink. Galbraith kept his parole with fidelity until just before his year expired when having yielded to his appetite for drink he failed to appear at court.

There seemed to be no alternative for the court except to sentence him to the penitentiary; and we, who sign this petition, either recommend this procedure to the court, or approve it, believing that a few months enforced abstinence from liquor would enable him to conquer his appetite. He has now been confined in jail and the penitentiary for six months, and we believe that he can be safely trusted at liberty.

He has a wife and seven children, who are now largely supported by the public, and whom he supported previous to his incarceration.

His sentence and imprisonment were really the result of his friends advice and action as a measure to reform him in the matter of temperance, rather than to punish him as a criminal. We believe that he can now be restored to his family and the community as a useful citizen.

We expect that the letters of J. S. Gilham, who appeared as his attorney, of Fred Maurer, the prosecuting attorney, of E. J. Overing Jr., and of his Honor Judge Dungan will acquaint you more fully with the details of this case.

The Standard Bred and Registered Trotting Stallion

Allercyone McGregor

RECORD 2100 1/2

ALLERCYONE MCGREGOR, No. 3888, the subject of this sketch, has a record of 2:00 1/2 on a half mile track in 1913. He is one of the stoutest, rugged middle-gamed race horses, and is from a horse family on both sides of the house, being sired by Allercyone, he is the great Allerton 2:14, his dam being the great bred mare, All McGregor, by Len McGregor. His second dam is Maud McGregor, dam of Nut McGregor, 2:17 1/2, also the dam of Miss Belmont, the greatest race mare that ever raced over a half mile track. Also the dam of many others with standard records. His third dam is the 3rd of his from 2:11 to 2:21 1/2, and with the fourth dam is a croaker on his sire's side. Allercyone McGregor comes from the great Allerton family, being by Allercyone the best son of the great Allerton, who in his time held the world's record of 2:00 1/2 on a half mile track, and was the leading sire of the world on his side of the house. He was bred by E. S. Garber, who held the world record, 2:22 1/2 for several years, and a family that has been considered the greatest race family in existence. Allercyone McGregor is a fine individual and a game race horse, having started 21 times and being first or second every time but twice. He was bred by E. S. Garber, Mo., in a race at Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 14, 1905, he won as high class a field of 217 horses as ever started over a half mile track, the first heat being 2:14, equalling the track record made by Mattie Chimes the year before. He won the first pulled tug log in the stretch, and it was said by all the horsemen present he could have paced the heat in 2:00 or better. Allercyone is no limit to his speed, as he has won a 3/4 mile on a half mile track in 1:52 1/2, a quarter in 32, and an eighth in 12 1/4. While Allercyone McGregor is a pacer himself, he is strictly trotting bred, and sire as his grand sire he has all trotters, and show lots of speed, and he should be as great a stallion as his grand sire if given an opportunity.

Will stand for season 1914, Mondays and Tuesdays at F. E. Payne's barn on Sec. 24-3-12. Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays at Red Cloud Tie Barn, Red Cloud, Nebraska.

TERMS:—$12.50 for the season. $15.00 to insure colt to stand and suck.

MR. FARMER

You can make money raising alfalfa in the Big Horn Basin or the North Platte Valley. If you will go with me to either of these localities, I will show you many farms where a alfalfa yield will amaze you. You do not have to sow and reap for each crop. You seed the ground to alfalfa once and then cut three times each year for succeeding years.

You can homestead forty or eighty acres of this land under the Government Canals, repaying the Government the actual cost of water, the payments spreading over many years, without interest.

The Burlington's new main line through Central Wyoming will traverse these localities and connect them with an immediate and perpetual market at profitable prices. There are, also, deeded lands and Carey Act Lands available in both of these regions.

Let me put you in touch with North Platte Valley land agents. Send for the new Big Horn Basin folder, now on the press.
