As Others See Our Boosters

Red Cloud citizens took Blue Hill by storm yesterday (Thursday) forenoon and for nearly an hour this old town presented a lively scene. There were twenty automobiles bearing ninety-six passengers, including "Babe" Benson, the biggest Democrat in the Republican valley; A. C. Hosmer, the liveliest Republican that ever invaded a Democratic stronghold; besides Liberator's band traveling in disguise.

This bunch of boosters was in charge of Prof. Moritz, secretary of the Red Cloud Chautauqua, and they were boosting the Chautauqua that will hold forth at Red Cloud August 2 to 9 inclusive. The band entertained the citizens with several excellent selections while the boosters were distributing literature advertising the high class entertainment to be furnished at the county seat.

From Blue Hill the big party went to Bladen and then completing a circuit of the towns as far west as Campbell, to Bloomington and down the river to Red Cloud.—Blue Hill Leader.
