

GEO. W. TRINE
Democratic and Peoples Independent Candidate
For Treasurer Webster County

Red Cloud, Nebraska,
October 27, 1914.

To The Voters of Webster County:—

I am a candidate for County Treasurer of our county. I have met many of you, but as time is limited, I could not meet all and I am writing you in order that you may know my views in regard to this office.

I believe that the office should be conducted with the least expense possible to the taxpayers and at the same time give the county efficient service.

A county officer is a servant of the people. The County Treasurer of Webster county is allowed $2,000 per year and $1,000 additional for a deputy. Now I have been a business man of this county for fourteen years and have had experience enough to conduct this office for the $2,000 allowed the treasurer without any extra salary for a deputy.

This letter is a pledge and a written contract by me with the voters and taxpayers of our county, that should they see fit to elect me their servant that no other salary shall be received or asked for by me except the $2,000, thus saving the county $1,000 per year now paid by the taxpayers of Webster County for running this office.

The law of Nebraska does not permit a man to be County Treasurer for more than four years at one time. This is a good provision, as the law recognizes the fact that the books of this office should be subject to examination by those not connected with the office, as so much of the people's money is entrusted to the treasurer. If the voters elect me to this office, I shall keep the letter as well as the spirit of this law and not remain as a deputy, but leave the books for others to examine.

I have been a resident of this county over twenty-five years, and am a free-holder in the county. If elected I shall devote my entire time to the office and work for the interests of the taxpayers. Any support you give me will be appreciated.

Yours very truly,

GEO. W. TRINE.

SILAS R. BARTON
CONGRESSMAN
Fifth Dist. Nebraska
GRAND ISLAND

House of Representatives U. S.
Washington, D. C.

To the Voters of the Fifth District:

October 27, 1914.

President Wilson has kept congress "on the job" as no other president has ever done. This has been caused partly, at least, by conditions which have confronted no other congress in recent years. I have believed it to be my duty to "stay on the job" with him, and, whether you re-elect me or not, I can conscientiously say that I have been one of less than a score of congressmen almost continually answering roll call. Wherever it has been possible for me to do so I have aided the president and the members of his cabinet. This has been especially true of the administration's efforts to free itself from high prices on armament, etc. I have also been greatly pleased to uphold him in his neutrality policy.

In substantiation of the above statement there is submitted the testimony of others. The United Press, an independent, non-political news-gathering association, on Friday last, carried the following news account from its Washington bureau:

"Washington, Oct. 23—(By United Press)—Representative Barton, of Nebraska, missed but one roll call of the present session of congress according to the report of the sergeant of arms today while working on the proposal for docking salaries of members for absence without excuse. Representative Stone, of Illinois, and Representative Morgan, of Oklahoma, tied for second place, they having been absent only twice."

But this "remaining on the job" has made it impossible for me to see all of the people in my district before the election. In fact I shall be able to see but very few, and I am taking this method of appealing to you for your vote. If, in your opinion, I have served my district faithfully, may I not hope to receive that approval which every conscientious man prizes, and which will certainly value most highly?

I sincerely regret that I have been unable to be in the field, and, where challenged, to meet my opponents or critics, and their statements. To one of these criticisms I wish here briefly to address myself. It has come to me that opponents are urging that I am not a property holder of any considerable proportions. Comparatively, perhaps, I have been less fortunate in this respect than the average congressman; but the tax records in my home county of Hall show that I annually pay almost $100 in taxes and I believe that, could I meet you, and speak with you about this matter face to face, I could convince you, if you are not already convinced, that a careful guardianship of the interests of my district and its people in Washington does not at all depend upon a large fortune in property or a voluminous bank account. Somehow I feel confident that you will not permit my absence, in itself to work to my injury, and that I can safely leave the matter in your hands.

Very respectfully,

SILAS R. BARTON.

Our present deputy treasurer has only been in the treasurer's office for seventeen years. Our present deputy clerk has only been in the clerk's office for eleven years and our present sheriff has only been in office for nine years. Are you in favor of giving these men a life job? Adv.

We have a new industry in this city. Once more we have a sawmill right in the heart of the city turning out lumber of the finest kind. The Jackson grove is being cut into lumber.

Governor Morehead has set apart November sixth to be observed as the prevention day. Many of the fires that occur in the winter time could have been avoided if proper precautions had been taken in the fall. This is an excellent move on the part of the Governor and everyone should make it a point to carry out the suggestions carefully.

The big bridge just west of Inavale has been completed by Platt & Frees and is one of the best in the state. This is the largest bridge of its kind in the county and is finished in excellent shape. Messrs. Platt & Frees are to be congratulated on the successful outcome of this undertaking and Webster county has a bridge that will never have to be rebuilt.

We have made a few inquiries the past week and we find that our merchants are paying more for eggs right along than are the merchants in the surrounding towns. Sometimes this price is as much as two cents more on the dozen. Careful buyers know that they are treated right by the Red Cloud merchants and they know where to bring their produce.

The Chief takes pleasure in presenting to the voters of Webster county, the democratic candidates for county office. They are a clean set of men and are all well fitted for the office for which they aspire. They have conducted a clean campaign and are worthy of the support of every citizen who desires efficient officers. None of them ever held office in Webster county and are our best citizens. Give them a trial.

The office of road overseer is an important one. Many roads are ruined because improperly treated. The roads made by Jim McIntosh are first class in every respect. He has had a great deal of experience in making roads and he has shown that he knows how to make them last. He is a candidate for the position of road overseer and he is worthy of every vote.

Mr. Leo DeTour of Guide Rock is a candidate for the office of county commissioner. He has lived in this county ever since March 1872 and may therefore be said to have gained a residence. Mr. DeTour served one term in the county clerks' office a number of years ago and he is thoroughly acquainted with the needs of the county. He believes in a careful conservative administration and will safe guard the peoples money. Vote for Leo DeTour.

Progressive Party

The Progressive Party in Nebraska have the courage to demand National prohibition. They have the good sense to recognize equal suffrage as just and right. They declare that "equality before the law" shall apply to the corporation and the individual, to the rich man and poor man alike, and that principal shall not be traded for office. Read and consider the platform. All of their candidates approve and stand upon it.

W. E. THORNE.

Candidate for Senator 20th district counties of Nuckolls, Webster and Hamilton.

Just Before Election

It should be plainly evident to any intelligent man that the stand I have voluntarily taken for liquor law enforcement has antagonized an element of Webster county to the extent that bootleggers and lawbreakers are all lined up against me. Now neighbors, are you going to help them elect their leader for sheriff? Think it over.

I have published my platform in the "Chief" as well as the "Herald" of Webster county. You know just what I stand for. If I am RIGHT you owe me your vote. If I am WRONG you owe it to someone else. If you are a TRUE CITIZEN with pure red blood in your veins you will VOTE for the MAN you consider the most RIGHT, and let the consequences be what they may.

But if you are not a true citizen, then you will listen to the "STRONGEST" and "LARGEST" and be led so freely by interested parties just as you vote for your second choice. If you do this your VOTE may cause the DEFEAT of your FIRST choice and allow the election of the man you are anxious to defeat. Look your own conscience square in the face and then vote for the man you consider nearest right. If you wish to feel easy over results.

Respectfully,
T. W. WHITE

THE BIG HORN OF PLENTY

That is the Big Horn Basin of Wyoming, with the heaviest crops, in its history of irrigation; thousands of tons of alfalfa, wheat and oats on Government and private irrigated lands; oil discoveries frequent; the finest grade of irrigated lands, with reliable and perpetual water rights, backed by the Government, may be homesteaded on easy terms. Cheap coal and timber for domestic use. A farm in Wyoming's richest industrial and farming section can be yours today, with a certain increase in all land values. The Burlington's new main line runs through the heart of the Basin, which has already over 200,000 population.

The new 20 year payment law has just passed congress. This makes the land and a perpetual water right almost a gift.

Come and see these wonderful crops. Join our personally conducted excursions. I am employed to help you find a suitable location along the Burlington. Write for "Basin" Literature.
