Flour is now higher in price than ever before in the history of this city. It has reached the high mark of $1.95 per sack. The great demand for wheat on the other side of the water is directly responsible for this condition.

Roseoe Weesner has purchased the interest F. B. Perry had in the mercantile establishment and the new firm will be known as Roseoe P. Weesner & Co. We wish the new firm success. Mr. Perry is undecided yet as to what he will do but we trust he will remain with us.

The church bell—how its melodies ring, as its tones vibrate and linger. The fashionable belle, with a beau on her string, has a beautiful ring on her finger. A political ring is a very bad thing; it scoops in the fool and the scholar; but so pleasing a ring has no earthly thing as the ring of the bird Silver dollar.

A Better Farming Meeting

Hon. H. W. Campbell, well known as Dry Farming Campbell, and J. B. Laison will lecture this city on Monday, February 1st, to hold a conference with farmers on better methods of farming. This will occur in the opera house in the afternoon and of course will be free. Mr. Campbell is considered an authority on Nebraska farming and it will pay any farmer to attend this meeting. He will be tame and as he lectures he desires you to ask questions. He will speak on the following subjects:

Better Methods of Tillage for Grain Crops; A New Method of Growing Late and Earlier Crops; A Cooperatives Plan for Introducing Some New Crops; Growing Crops for Exhibit Purposes; A Lecture on Soils; The Pit Slope and Its Value to the Western Farmer.

The Chief urges all farmers who possibly can to attend this meeting.

The following letters will be sent to the dead letter office Feb. 4th, if not called for before that date: Grinnell Bennett, O. B. Retta, John Bell, Mr. and Mrs. John Bucklin, Mrs. Donox, Mabel Cade, Howard Crains, Ed Graham, A. Henderson, Tom Gleis, J. W. Jorgenson, J. W. McMillan, Mrs. E. L. Smith, A. J. Winter, A. Wood, Raymond Webn, Helen Schubach, Mrs. Nellie Frasier, Box 75, Lyric theatre, H. C. LETSON, P. M.

During the high wind Tuesday morning part of the brick front of the Dye Bros. & Co.'s Monument Works building blew down. The building is a veneered one and the damage is considerable.

Vonholle-Shannon

At the home of G. W. Shannon at high noon January 20th, in the presence of relatives occurred the marriage of Miss Lena G. Shannon to Mr. Christ J. Vonholle, Rev. Hummel officiating. They were attended by Miss Nora Shannon and L. F. Hutchinson. The bride is one of Webster county's talented young ladies and a graduate of the Red Cloud high school, class of 1913.

The groom now resides in Orleans but was for a while overseer of the J. L. Christian farm, southwest of this city, and is considered a young man of sterling worth.

After congratulations all were invited to the dining room, where a bounteous feast was partaken of, after which those present were treated to some very fine music, both instrumental and vocal.

The young couple will make their home near Orleans, and the Chief joins with their many friends in extending congratulations.
