 L. L. Boren and family moved onto their farm across the river last week. George VanCamp and wife will occupy the Boren residence.
 The Webster County Argus moved the first of the week to its former headquarters under the State Bank. Brother Edson says he will not be obliged to carry his mail so far now.
 A high class entertainment at a low price will be given at the opera house on Friday evening, March 19th, at which time occurs Bandmaster Betz's Musical. The first half of the entertainment will consist of selections from an eight-piece orchestra, the second half, solos and duets. Admission 25c to all.
 William J. Rodgers, aged 49 years, 6 months and 16 days, died Tuesday evening of pneumonia, at the home of his mother in the north part of town. The body will be shipped to Farmington, Ill., for interment. A mother, two brothers and one sister, all of whom reside here, are left to mourn his demise.
 Wednesday morning when this editor was going to the post office for his morning mail, we met Ernest Davis, the popular clerk in Weesner's store, his face aglow with "the smile that won't come off." He was inquiring for the census taker, stating that the population of our city had been increased and he desired to have it shown immediately upon the census report. Ernest says it is a baby girl which arrived Tuesday night.

TEPEE

Neptune's Daughter

Monday Afternoon and Evening, and Tuesday Evening, Mar. 15 16

The sublime achievement of the moving picture art, presenting Annette Kellerman, the "perfect woman," and a company of 1000 players. A film masterpiece in seven parts; 8000 feet. An original and diverging fantasy. Two and a half hours of intense interest and entertainment.

At the TEPEE next Monday afternoon and evening, and Tuesday evening, March 15 and 16.

Evening Prices 25 and 10c
Afternoon 10 and 5c

To thoroughly enjoy this picture one should be on hand at the opening. The first evening performance will last until 10 o'clock. The second will continue until all have seen the complete picture.

The picture was produced amidst the enchanting scenes of the Bermuda Islands. Cost $50,000 and is a production that will be watched with delight.

Do not miss it, even if prices have necessarily been advanced, for the evening show. You will say that it is well worth it.

EVENING 7:30 SHARP
AFTERNOON AT 4 SHARP

Miss Retta McDowell has resigned her position in Mrs. Barbara Phares' store.

The Odd Fellows lodge moved Wednesday into the Turnure hall, which they have rented.

Albert Coplen, who lives a mile north of Guide Rock, has postponed his public sale until March 18th.

An exchange says our friends across the line into Kansas are somewhat agitated by a brisk controversy over the real authorship of a poem entitled, "The Call of Kansas," which ends up with a description of the author's feelings when she felt the lure of the prairies "calling, calling me." A local draw poker fan says: "this is nothing compared to his sensations when he hears his adversary 'calling, calling, him.'"

The local in last week's issue of the Chief in regard to Frank Richardson of Cheyenne, Wyoming, being in the city on a visit to his mother and friends, should have been worded different, as his wife, Mrs. Frank Richardson, resides in this city. We endeavor, at all times, to give our readers all the news, in a correct way, but mistakes will sometimes happen.

There Is No Question but that indigestion and the distressed feeling which always goes with it can be promptly relieved by taking a Rexall Dyspepsia Tablet before and after each meal. 25c a box.
