 THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC PAPER IN WEBSTER COUNTY

The white hope finally materialized and a white man is again the champion boxer of the world. Jess Willard, the new champion hails from our sister state Kansas, and is the largest man that has ever entered the pugilistic arena. Kansas is happy and so is the champion and a lot of other people.

The monthly business men's dinner will be held again next Tuesday. We trust that the committee in charge will perfect their arrangements early so that the coming dinner will be as successful as the last one. These dinners seem to have become a permanent thing in our civic life and if they are to continue and be a real help it will take careful planning and persistent effort on the part of some one. Such things do not run themselves.

Three county commissioners from South Dakota were here this week inspecting our new court house. They expressed themselves as being very well pleased with the building and they think if they can get one like it at a few thousand dollars more they will be satisfied. Webster county has reason to congratulate herself on this building. Outsiders all wonder how it was done and they are loud in their praise of the finish and arrangement of this building.

County Superintendent Miss Coon informs us that more children are entering the agricultural contests in the county than ever before. This shows that agricultural subjects are becoming popular in Webster county. There is still plenty of opportunity to raise more grain to the acre, mature cattle and hogs quicker and better and these contests furnish a means of stimulating not only the children but the fathers and mothers to greater efforts.

It is time that some energetic, enthusiastic, public spirited citizen should begin to organize a base ball team for the coming summer. We do not mean a high salaried team or a league team, but one composed of Red Cloud citizens. A home team that will play for home folks and then organize the county and plan for the championship of Webster county. In these contests we would not want a single player to appear on the diamond who was not a citizen of the county. We might not be able to secure the trophy since the north part of the county have some excellent players but we would enjoy the contests never the less.

The Teepee has been unusually good of late even better than formerly if such a thing is possible. Manager Warren believes in giving all he possibly can to the public and the public is very appreciative just at present. The selection of films have been wisely made and pictures of a very high merit are constantly shown. As an educator and instructor the moving picture probably reaches more people than all the colleges and universities combined. Without leaving home one can visit every land on the globe and see how other people do things. The pictures at the Teepee are carefully selected and all objectionable views never reach the city.

It begins to look as tho spring had arrived after being considerably overdue. The birds were here a little too soon, but the flowers are coming and the weather is warm so we may reasonably expect that the long looked for even has finally come to pass. Work on the farms is fully thirty days behind time, but when once the seed is out into the ground it will make up for lost time because of the excess of moisture in the soil. We never had the ground in such excellent condition and we may confidently expect a bumper crop. The world will need everything we raise because of the war in Europe. Even tho the war should soon end it will be a long time before the devastated fields will be in shape to produce anything like a good crop.

Womanly suits for small women

Small women know how hard it has often been to find a suitable coat or tailored suit in a small size.

You can find plenty of garments in the size you want, but the styles are often so girlish—so unbecoming to a matron.

The usual assortment is so limited for matrons of small stature that you go away disappointed or with something that never satisfies.

Here are two womanly suits for small women. They represent a number of handsome models that bear this label

Wooltex designers provide them especially for you. Not just one, but a number of them in covert, gabardine, poplin, serge, mistral cloth and fancy suitings, with a full range of colors. Sizes 34 and 36.

For misses, sizes 14, 16, 18.

Come in and try on a few Wooltex coats or suits, see their smartly tailored lines, the rich silk linings and all around superiority.
