Prominent Attorney Weds Lincoln Girl

The following article taken from the Lincoln Daily Star of Friday, October 15th, tells of the wedding of a prominent and highly respected young attorney of this city, to a charming and accomplished young lady of Lincoln: "The marriage of Miss Claudia Birdie Chaplin and Mr. Branson Washburn Stewart was celebrated last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Chaplin. The marriage vows were exchanged at 8 o'clock, the Rev. Jeffries, pastor of St. Paul M. E. church officiating. There were no attendants except the little flower girl Margretha Finch, cousin of the bride, who carried a basket of rose petals which were strewn in the pathway of the bridal couple as they approached the bower of smilax, palms and roses, in front of which they stood during the ceremony. The bride's sister, Mrs. L. A. Jones of Rochester, N. Y., sang, "O' Promise Me," accompanied by Miss Mary Holcomb. The Mendelssohn "Wedding March" was played by Mrs. William Dankroeger, of Clay-tonia. During the ceremony "Trau-meret" was heard.

The bride was attired in a white satin gown fashioned with a train with an overdrape of Georgette crepe and trimmings of pearls and duchess lace. The bridal veil was held to the coiffure with a cluster of valley lilies and the bridal bouquet was a shower of roses and valley lilies.

Miss Izora Ingham assisted in receiving and directing the guests. Miss Elizabeth Wilkins was in charge of the dining room, assisted by the groom's sister, Miss Carrie Stewart, and the bride's cousin, Miss Norma Kreig and Ida Wilkins. Miss Annie Kreig had charge of the guest book.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of the Lincoln High School. The groom is now a practicing attorney at Red Cloud. He and his bride will remain in the city over Sunday and will be at home to their friends at Red Cloud, after November 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart arrived in the city Monday evening and have taken up their residence in the house recently erected by E. U. Overman in the west part of the city. The Chief along with the many friends of the bride and groom wish them much joy and happiness.
