"Folk-Song of Nebraska and the Central West" is the title of a book of 90 pages just issued by the Nebraska Academy of Sciences, edited by Addison E. Sheldon. The book is the result of ten years' special research of Miss Louise Pound, of the State University. It contains a short sketch and one or two stanzas of each of the songs remembered and sung by the people of Nebraska, so far as gathered. Many of these are old songs which came across the ocean with our great grandmothers and we have often heard, but never seen in print. The chapter on pioneer and western songs gives the text of each in full. Among these are many Nebraska favorites, including the famous Cat Creek Glee Club song of Farmers' Alliance days, "We'll Meet You By and By," and the "Kinkaiders' Song." The book is illustrated with half-tones of Moses P. Kinkaid, and typical scenes on the Nebraska frontier. This book is the first step toward a complete volume containing the words and music of all Nebraska folk song. All persons interested in this subject are asked to write Miss Pound sending copies of songs not in print which they have heard sung in this state.

A new ruling made by the Burlington went into effect last week, and as a result retailers of produce in car lots can not make sales from the company's cars. Potatoes, apples, cabbage, etc., must first be unloaded and offered for sale outside of the railroad right-of-way. While the new order works a hardship on all shippers, at the same time it will do away with the retailer who sells in transit, and place the sale of produce in the hands of local men.—Oxford Standard.

The third installment of Neal of the Navy was shown at the Tepee on Monday and Tuesday evenings. The pictures gain in interest each week, and a large number are reading the story and following each series very closely. Comrade John, which was shown yesterday, both afternoon and evening, and will be shown again today, at the same hours, is a picture of the very highest type, and carries with it some scenes, such as the destroying of the temple, by fire, which is alone worth the admission price.

Chas. A. Schellak was called to Hastings Friday morning by the death of his brother, Wm. S. Schellak, who dropped dead Thursday evening in his office while talking to some of his friends. Mr. Schellak was associated with Messrs. Polenske in the brick manufacturing business at that place, and had many friends in this county who will be pained to hear of his sudden and untimely death. The funeral services were held at his late home Sunday afternoon, and was one of the largest attended funerals ever held in Hastings. Besides his brother, Chas., he leaves three sisters, a wife and two children to mourn his death.

Interest in Nebraska History grows as we near the semi-centennial of our statehood. The Nebraska History Seminar of the State University has just issued in pamphlet form an address by Prof. C. N. Anderson of the Kearney State Normal on "Local and Nebraska History in Nebraska Public Schools." The address presents a plan for interesting children in the grade and high schools in Nebraska history and in preserving the local history of their own region. The plan has the merit of having been tried out successfully at Kearney Normal. The pamphlet is of interest to every teacher and every lover of Nebraska history.

The Booster Contest which was put on by the Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co., some few months ago, closed Wednesday at 12 o'clock. When the final count was made, it was found that Miss Maude Crow had the largest number of coupons deposited in the ballot box to her credit, and as a consequence she was declared the winner of the fine piano, which was the prize offered. The Contest was a lively one from start to finish, and no doubt was the means of getting any number of new customers acquainted with the fact that the Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co. carry at all times a full and complete line of clothing and gents furnishings, and that their record for square, courteous treatment can not be beat.

Mr. Newhouse spares no pains in his efforts to best serve the public, and that his efforts are appreciated is proven by the large patronage which he enjoys.

Smith-Mackey
On Sunday, November 14, at 1 o'clock Mr. Dallas Smith of Riverton, Nebraska, and Miss Nevada H. Mackey, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in the first ward, Rev. J. L. Beebe officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mackey, and the groom is one of the industrious young men of Riverton. The bride was adorned in blue satin messaline with an over dress of white shadow lace and blue marabou trimming, and a veil of white silk net with a wreath of white morning glories, and carried a bouquet of white peony and carnations.

After the wedding and ring ceremony, which was witnessed by about thirty-five guests, an elegant three course dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will remain in Red Cloud for a short time, and in the near future will make their home at Grand Island. Their many friends extend congratulations.

The Grim Reaper
Calls Three More

they both died within a week. Mr. Cutter was buried Tuesday and Mr. Morhart died Wednesday.

Mr. Morhart was twice married. By his first wife he became the father of three sons, George, Stacy and Bert. The two latter have been engaged in business with him. The eldest son, on account of his health, removed to Colorado some years ago.

His second wife, Miss Lottie Reigie survives him.

Mr. Morhart was a member of the Christian church of this city.

He was born in Woodford County, Illinois, February 20, 1851, and was 64 years, 8 months and 27 days of age at the time of his demise. He removed to Lincoln, Nebraska in 1868, coming to this place in 1874.

The funeral services will be held from the home Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Henry C. Cutter

The community was greatly shocked Friday morning to hear of the sudden death of Henry C. Cutter at Bird City, Kansas. Mr. Cutter had gone to Bird City some few weeks previous to look after his farms and the evening before his death he had attended a revival service, coming back to the hotel and retiring at about 10:30 p. m. A friend sleeping in the same room with Mr. Cutter, arose early, and left the later apparently asleep. Later when he was called for breakfast it was discovered that he was dead. Mayor Dr. Robt. Damerall was at St. Francis, Kas., at this time and accompanied the Coroner to Bird City, he taking charge of the remains bringing them to this city Sunday morning.

Henry C. Cutter was born in New York, February 23, 1853, and was 62 years, 8 months and 19 days of age at the time of his demise. He came to Nebraska when a young man and after a short stay at different places, finally located in Webster county making Red Cloud his home. Here he engaged in the stock and grain business until his health failed about a year ago. In this venture he made a financial success and leaves a competency. The funeral services were held at the Christian church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by J. L. Beebe. Messrs. Cotting and Thomas, and Mesdames Garber and Gellatly sang three very beautiful songs at this funeral. Many floral expressions of esteem added to the solemnity of the service. The Horse Shoe Club of which Mr. Cutter was president placed a white horse shoe garland upon the casket, as an indication of the respect of the club for the deceased. Mr. Cutter was active in the work of the United churches, and did all he could to promote and maintain church union. The city has lost a very active citizen, and his many friends and the church will keenly feel the loss of his cheerful presence. He leaves a wife, brother and sister to whom the sympathy of the entire community is extended in their hour of bereavement.

Jacob A. Negley

On last Saturday, Mr. Jacob A. Negley, aged 79 years 8 months and 16 days, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. B. E. Eshelman, after a lingering illness. He was born in Welchrun, Penn., on February 17, 1836. He later moved to Fulton County, Illinois, and then came to Webster County where he has since resided. The funeral services were held at the Eshelman home Sunday afternoon, Rev. Ira Waggoner officiating. His remains were taken to Fulton County, Illinois, Monday, for interment, by his son, Van Negley, and Mrs. Myers of Wichita, Kansas.

BAPTIST CHURCH
