Mrs. Clara Johnston proved to be the one holding the lucky number in the watch contest, put on by E. H. Newhouse, the enterprising jeweler and optometrist, on last Friday afternoon, and as a consequence, she was given, absolutely free, a ladies' size, $25 South Bend Watch. The contest was put on by Mr. Newhouse with but one object in view, namely, in order to more thoroughly advertise the advantages of possessing a South Bend watch, in preference to any other make, and that it was a success, is proven by the fact that it was under the management of such a capable man, along his chosen line, as Mr. Newhouse.

Commencing next Monday, Nov. 29, the first show at the Tepee will commence at 7:30.

Dan Garber has deserted Riverton in regard to business, as he has moved his real-estate office to Red Cloud—that is he has moved his business headquarters to that city, from which place he will still continue to deal in dirt.—Riverton Review.

Funeral services for the late Adam Morhart was held Friday morning at his home in this city, Rev. J. L. Beebe officiating. Out of respect to the deceased the business houses of the city were closed during the services. Interment took place in the city cemetery.

A fire alarm was turned in about 5:15 Tuesday evening, to which the fire boys responded promptly. The scene of the blaze proved to be the Nelson residence, east of the cemetery, in the first ward, but was extinguished before doing much damage, in fact, even before the fire boys reached there, notwithstanding a record run was made with the hose cart, ably assisted by Paul Francis and his "Tin Lizzie."

That it pays to advertise was again clearly proven by The Chief announcing its real bargain rate of only $1 for the paper until January 1, 1917. We have had the pleasure, the past few days, of adding a goodly number of subscribers to our already large list, as well as advance the date to the limit, with any number of subscribers who were in arrears. It was a real bargain offer, and while we are entirely satisfied with the results obtained, should this paragraph come before your eyes, and serve as a reminder of a real bargain you have failed to take advantage of, before the close of Thanksgiving day, you should lose no time in seeing that your name is on our mailing list.

Wednesday Afternoon at 3 o'clock Nedra An Extra Special Feature in 5 parts

Adapted from the novel of George Barr McCutcheon, a tremendously strong offering—a typhoon at sea—a stirring battle and a romantic love affair on a tropical island—the Bermuda! Full of romantic situations. In charm and interest of theme Nedra ranks with the best.

A gripping scene is the real typhoon taken aboard a liner at sea—the breaking up of the boat, throwing the leading characters onto the Savage Island of Nedra, where hundreds of savages greet the white gods. The culmination comes when an American warship arrives to rescue them.

Other scenes are set in New York homes and on seaboard. The tropical scenes are taken in the Bermudas.

Regular Prices S. H. Johnson of Inavale was in the city Wednesday.

The Oxford Team Plays Slow Game

Last Friday afternoon the Red Cloud High school team played Oxford High school team here at foot ball before a large crowd and defeated them by a score of 61 to 0. Oxford was completely outclassed and never appeared dangerous only having possession of the ball three times during the game. The locals played with snap and vim seldom displayed in other games, each man playing a stellar part. Long runs were made by Baker, who ran 40 yards on an end run, Overleese, who ran 50 yards when returning the ball on an Oxford punt. Red Cloud scored two touchdowns in the first four minutes of play. One touchdown was scored by Wilson, Kidd, Polnick, and three each by
