 Class Graham a brakeman in the employ of the C. B. & Q., who left this city Tuesday morning on train No. 66, was instantly killed while switching in the yards at Reynolds. His home was at Hubbell, and he had been in the employ of the Burlington for about six months, but previous to this had spent several years in the service for the Rock Island.

Buy your buggy whips at Fogel's. Every tenth whip given away.
 Mrs. Sheldon and daughter, Miss Hazel were in Hastings Saturday.
 Don't fail to hear the Hallowell Musical Company of Chicago at the Congregational church, Christmas evening. Tickets 50 and 75c, children 25c.
 The Bladen Enterprise thinks that the papers of this city have been a little severe on the Fair question but it is kind enough to say that no ill feeling was intended. That position is absolutely correct. The question before this city was did we want the Fair? We could not see how we could work it in with our other activities and we decided that we would not entertain the proposition. We are pleased that Bladen has concluded to get down to business and make the fair a success, and if there is anything that we can do to help, our services are at the disposal of the people of Bladen.

I have several good farms for sale or trade.—C. A. Schultz.
 Mrs. E. U. Overman and daughter, Miss Elizabeth were in Hastings on Saturday.
 A complete assortment of beautiful gold rings at wonderful prices.—Mitchell, The Jeweler.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charley Gurney, Jr., who reside north of this city are the proud parents of a baby girl which was born Sunday.
 Go up and down the streets of our fair city and you will see the finest window decorations in the Republican valley. Each window is a model in itself. Articles of value are artistically arranged and temptingly displayed. It is an education in itself to carefully study the effect of these holiday windows. Nothing has been spared to make them attractive, and no one will find any difficulty in selecting just the right present for Christmas.
