Europe's Warning

There are a million maimed and blinded boys to-day in Europe. There are millions of homes to which loved ones will never return. There would be a million mourning homes in America today had the United States entered the European war. You have been spared this misery. You are still surrounded by those you love. Do not gamble with your great good fortune. Keep Wilson in Washington!

Boquet For L. H. Blackledge

It is always a pleasure to note the advancement and progress of former McCook citizens who have moved from us and taken up life's activities elsewhere and made good—made good in clean, honorable and worthy ways. In the early days of McCook, one of our young barristers was a young man by the name of L. H. Blackledge, a retiring, studious, pains-taking young fellow, indeed, who marked the coming man of affairs and parts and ac. completed in the law practice by close and careful attention to his profession.

Quite a number of years since, he moved to Red Cloud and took up the practice of law in that city. The Tribune notes that he is now one of the candidates for the honorable and high position of judge of the district court in the Tenth district, and cannot refrain from the suggestion, based on knowledge of the man, that the people of that district will make no mistake should the choice fall upon L. H. Blackledge, who associates with keen and substantial legal knowledge and procedure, character of fine parts and texture.—McCook Tribune.

Winter Lyceum Course

For those that care for the best in music, singing and fine lectures, there is a wonderful opportunity presented this winter through the efforts of the Business Men of Red Cloud, who are making this winter's Lyceum Course possible. The Redpath-Horner Lyceum Bureau is without question the best in the West. This year a more expensive course is presented to the Red Cloud people than ever. The sale of season tickets will determine whether or not Red Cloud is to stay in line for better entertainment.

The course consists of five numbers. Opening on October 31 at the Orpheum theater with Mr. Schilkret and his Orchestra of six Hungarian Musicians. Schilkret's Orchestra is seldom seen in the smaller cities and Red Cloud is very fortunate in having the opportunity to hear these high class artists. The next number is Sylvester H. Long. Mr. Long is a scholar with a message to the people, that makes life better and happier after having heard him. Mr. Long is not altogether a stranger in this community. Then the Metropolitan Artist headed by Miss Roberta Beatty. Miss Beatty features both light and grand opera with a beautiful soprano voice. She is supported by Mr. Claude Rader, a wonderful violinist, and Mrs. Rader at the piano. Thomas B. Fletcher is next. Word comes to us that Mr. Fletcher is a Doctor Wasson type of lecturer, a man of humor, pathos, and a story worth while to the people. The last number is a big music festival. Three pretty girls compose The Musical Entertainers. They all play the piano, read and sing their own repertoire. From the classical to ragtime, opera to character stuff these young ladies have to offer a program worth the price of a season ticket alone.

This is a wonderful opportunity to spend five evening this winter with talent that seldom make the smaller cities. Seats are on sale at most of the business houses. Adults general admission for the season $1.50, school children $1.00. Those wishing reserved seats for the entire course may get them at Cook's Pharmacy for 50 cents additional. Get your tickets now. The first number is October 31. Schilkret's Orchestra usually costs you from $1.00 to $3.00 alone.

For sale—2 teams of horses, 2 sets of double harness, 2 wagons, 1 hay rack and running gears.—Harry Moranville.

Farmers in Catherton Township Are Prospering

After spending several days at my old homestead in Catherton township and noting the many improvements that are in progress and what has been made in the last year, thought it would be of interest to your many readers to mention some of them, those that I shall mention are in the two tiers of sections on the east side. If the rest of the township is doing as good, Catherton is booming.

Commencing on section 1, J. B. Kral is erecting a complete set of new buildings on the southeast 1/4. J. B. lives in Hastings but his son L. P. and I will occupy the place.

On the same section, a new barn has been erected on the Wilson place.

On section 2, Frank Cather has erected a fine bungalow, modern in every respect and is now building a large barn.

On section 11, A. R. Larrick is erecting a crib and granary equipping it with an elevator.

Theodore Lambrecht has for himself and wife built a nice cottage on section 25.

The north half of section 26, owned by Johnnie Marker, is being decorated by a complete set of new buildings. The house is large and commodious and is being equipped with a heating plant and water system.

Conspicuous on the northwest 1/4 of section 36, is another set of new buildings. The house is of the cottage type and the barn like you see in Illinois—big enough to hold everything on the place. These were erected and are occupied by Walter Lambrecht. AN EARLY SETTLER.

The Prohibition Promise— "Nebraska Dry" A Delusion:

Do the people of Nebraska know and understand what the promises and pledges of the advocates of prohibition are?

Many intelligent and well-meaning citizens, deceived and misled by the prohibition cry "Make Nebraska Dry," believe that the adoption of the prohibitory amendment will make Nebraska "dry" and banish alcoholic beverages from the state.

That this belief is a delusion and unfounded in fact is proven by the official promises and statements of the organization which framed the Nebraska prohibitory amendment and is leading the campaign for its adoption.

The "Nebraska Dry Federation" in its official argument in support of the amendment filed with the Secretary of State says: "The proposed amendment does not ATTEMPT TO DEAL with the HABITS AND APPETITES of our citizens."

This is an astounding statement coming from the organization which is imploring citizens to "vote Nebraska dry" and endeavoring by every means to persuade citizens to believe that the adoption of the amendment will make Nebraska "dry."

The prohibition advocates admit that the amendment is not intended to reduce either the USE or the ABUSE of alcoholic beverages. It is not intended to keep alcoholic beverages from the drunkard nor the boy. But it is A PROMISE that under prohibition every person may USE or ABUSE these beverages in any degree so long as they follow the "MAIL-ORDER PLAN" and send their money OUTSIDE THE STATE.

The statement deserves repeating: "NO ATTEMPT TO DEAL WITH THE HABITS AND APPETITES OF OUR CITIZENS." Can anyone be deluded into the belief that this will make Nebraska "dry?" that it will improve conditions and foster temperance when its only command is—"Use all you want—but buy it outside the state?"

Kansas has tried this method and has suffered the penalty of increased intemperance, increased crime, juvenile delinquency, pauperism and increased taxation. The result of this system of "mail order" and "alley joint" distribution of alcoholic beverages in prohibition states is forcibly illustrated in the following extract.

From the Wichita (Kan.) "Beacon" of September 20, 1916. The "Beacon" says:—

"A young man suffering with a severe back strain called at the office of a Schweiter building physician a few days ago for treatment. While the doctor was attending him he told how he was injured. 'I work in one of the railway freight warehouses,' he said. 'Last week we got a little behind with the unloading of liquor cars. We unloaded one a day that week and this left us with three cars to unload Monday. I was hustling along with the other workmen and strained by back trying to lift a barrel of whisky.' The workman told the physician that the railroad for which he worked brought from seven to ten carloads of beer and whisky to Wichita every week."

These conditions are offered to Nebraska by the advocates of prohibition,—not a "dry" Nebraska but a Nebraska flooded with an unrestricted supply of alcoholic beverages for the intemperate and the minor as well as all others.
