ORPHEUM, FRIDAY, NOV. 24

"Dollars and the Woman" Six Reels of Modern Life Special Orchestra Music

THE two strongest influences in a man's life are the Dollar and the Woman. Many a man has fought a brave fight and eventually lost one then the power of the other. This feature has been ably handled and adapted to portray the struggles of men and women of today and proves emphatically the old saying, "Money is not Everything."

ADMISSION TEN AND FIFTEEN CENTS

Buy your Thanksgiving dinner at the Baptist Ladies sale at Wullbrandt's store, Wednesday, Nov. 20th.

Do you want to end your Thanksgiving day in the right way and the right place?—Sure. The Orpheum is where I mean.

Do not fail to get tickets for "The Country Doctor". A four-act comedy drama that cannot help but please you Orpheum theater, Nov. 30th. Tickets on sale at Cook's Drug Store, 25c and 35c.

Mayor Damerell has received several sets of blue prints covering plans and specifications of the proposed Carnegie library. At this day and age a public library is no longer considered a luxury, but a necessity and at Red Cloud had advanced to a considerable extent along other lines of public improvements its citizens should carefully consider the proposition of erecting a library. Many of our citizens are in favor of the proposition and now is the opportune time to take the matter up and decide what is to be done.

Farm Loans I can make you a farm loan at lowest interest and best terms to be had in the state. Please write me, or call for me at State Bank Red Cloud.—C. F. Cather.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Miss Sarah Baxter, next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Come and see Helen Holmes in Whispering Smith in an elaborate five reel production of the famous novel, at the Orpheum, Thursday, Nov. 23. Special orchestra music. Admission 10 and 15c.

Owing to the fact that the Republican City High School foot ball team got cold feet and did not care to meet our boys on the local gridiron, the Burr Oak team came over and took our boys on for a game. The local team won by a score of 27 to 0. A large crowd was in attendance and our boys put up a good game.

When the Firemen Appear

the insured man's first thought is one of thankfulness that he is so. How about your thoughts if a fireman should appear at your home?

The Day Before the Fire is the day to insure. As that day may be to-morrow for all you can know do, it follows that prudence would tell you to stop in our office to-day and have us issue you a policy.
