Money Talks

To be sure Money Talks, especially if it is actively employed. Money that is idle is asleep. If you could hold all the money that passes through your hands it would be a fine thing for you, but if every one else followed the same plan where would you get yours? The place for money is in a reliable bank like ours, but subject to your check. Hoarding money takes it out of circulation and it is constantly liable to be lost. Money on deposit talks and the things it says to you are "security, comfort, satisfaction." We invite you to open an account with us.

Annual report of O. C. Teel was presented and ordered placed on file.

The Mayor and Clerk were ordered to draw warrants for sewerage contract when estimate is furnished by Grant & Fulton, Engineers.

The Finance Committee reported that they had checked the books of the Clerk and Treasurer and found same checked as reported.

C. F. McKeighan made a proposition to haul coal to power house for 60 cents per ton and same was accepted as long as his services were satisfactory.

The Clerk was instructed to pay all bills where discount is allowed when properly O. K'd by the Superintendent and take the discount.

A few claims were allowed and the meeting then adjourned.

Laid at Rest

Mrs. F. N. Richardson, a highly respected pioneer citizen of this vicinity suffered a paralytic stroke, at her home in this city, on last Thursday evening, which resulted in her death on Friday. She was alone in her home when stricken and was found by Mr. and Mrs. Clair Pope, who occupy part of the house, when they returned home that evening. Medical aid was immediately summoned and everything possible done to relieve the sufferer.

The deceased was born in Rochester, Fulton county, Indiana, October 26, 1848. At the close of the civil war she was united in marriage to F. N. Richardson. They came with the other homesteaders in the seventies and settled on Elm Creek, where they resided until about twenty five years ago, at that time coming to this city. Mr. Richardson passed to his eternal reward in June, 1912.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson adopted Frank Richardson, who is now a conductor on the Cheyenne division of the C. & S. R. R.

Funeral services were conducted from the late home of the deceased on Sunday afternoon, Reverends J. L. Beebe and G. W. Hummel in charge.

Improves Their Garage

Messrs. Buzzard and Karsting, the two popular young men who recently purchased the garage, formerly conducted by Havel & Buzzard, are very busy remodeling the building and getting things in shape to give their patrons the best possible service in this line.

The boys are not only artists in their respective profession of selling and repairing automobiles, but in the past week they have exhibited their skill in the handling of the saw and hammer. They have been using their spare time to a good advantage and within a few days the building will present a marked change in appearance. They have removed the room formerly used as an office and constructed a new one above stairs. They state that the object of this change is to give more floor space in the front of the building for the storage of cars.

They inform us that several new pieces of machinery and other equipment will be added in the near future, also that they have a complete stock of auto accessories ordered. An announcement of their "grand offering" will appear in the columns of The Chief at a later date.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Robinson of Guide Rock spent the weekend with relatives in this city.

No Patriotic Meeting, As Yet

Hours have lengthened into days and days into weeks, since the call to arms has been issued by our noble president, still we continue to let the call go unheeded and continue to go our way as heretofore. Aside from displaying a few flags, we have done nothing toward showing our patriotism.

Exchanges coming to our desk inform us of the activities of our neighboring cities and villages and some of our citizens who have been out of town conveyed the information to us that when compared to some other towns, we have been slackers.

Why not a patriotic day for Webster County, held at Red Cloud? We have men of sufficient knowledge of affairs and conditions that would gladly devote an hour of their time to patriotic addresses. We have a band of musician possessing the required talent to render the patriotic music and a band leader capable of taking charge of the musical program. What we lack is a leader, one who will take hold as he would of a business proposition and push the venture, make a success of it the same as has been done with other matters pertaining to the welfare of the community. Our mayor and council and commercial club should take the matter up and see what can be done.

Injured in Auto Accident

An auto accident which could have easily resulted in the death of two of our citizens occurred on the road north of the city on last Thursday evening, and judging from the appearance of the car and the information we have received the two occupants of it are indeed fortunate in having escaped alive.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Clark, who were returning from a visit with friends in a neighboring city, were the victims of the accident. Mr. Clark was driving the car and until they had reached the Dan Garber farm all was well, when at that time, and for some unknown reason, the car turned over. They were discovered by the driver of a passing car and were brought to this city where medical aid was promptly given them. Aside from several cuts and bruises Mr. Clark is none the worse for the mixup. However Mrs. Clark's condition is more serious. At the present writing she is reported recovering as can be expected.

Death Calls Mrs. Wilson

On Wednesday morning, Mrs. Amanda E. Wilson, wife of Clarence Wilson, who resides in Catherton township, passed away after a short illness at the home of Dr. Stockman. She was born in Indiana, Nov. 4, 1863 and was 53 years old at the time of her demise. She was a kind and loving mother and had been a resident of this county for many years. Besides a husband, one daughter and two sons and other relatives are left to mourn her death. The funeral services will be held at the New Virginia church in Catherton township.

Ladies Organize Relief Club

The Ladies of the Evening and Afternoon Whist Clubs have organized themselves into a War Relief Club, the object of which is to raise money for our Allies. All contributions, however small, will be gratefully received.

Mrs. W. A. SHERWOOD, Vice Pres.
Mrs. C. J. PLATT, Sec'y and Treas.

The volunteer plan for raising 500,000 men was defeated in the senate by a vote of 69 to 18. In the house the selective conscription bill won over the volunteer plan by a vote of 279 to 98. The senate adopted an amendment by Senator Hitchcock raising the minimum age for conscription from 19 to 21. After a lengthy discussion the senate changed the minimum age of those subject to draft from 25 to 27. The house bill makes 40 years the maximum draft age. The maximum age will be determined by both the house and the senate during the week.
