RED CLOUD NEBRASKA

Educational Feature of the Big Parade

Pursuant to a request of general committee on Fourth of July celebration, an attempt will be made to illustrate incidents in national, state and local history. It is hoped there will be 1000 children from the towns and rural communities take part in the big educational parade. The plan is to costume, group and organize this immense body of children and young people into units representing the outstanding features of history.

Group 1—Under supervision of Maimie Reed is to represent the first Americans, the Indians. The great Chief Red Cloud after whom our city is named, will revisit the haunts of his period of power.

Group 2—Under the supervision of Irene McGuire and Kathryn Thomas is to represent those sturdy pioneers who planted the ideals of America in the bleak and forbidding climate of New England, the Puritans.

Group 3—Under supervision of Miss Belle Spanogle is to represent those men and women who developed a cluster of colonies into a mighty country.

Group 4—Under supervision of Florence Kellogg is to represent the spirit of a people who would not submit to the tyrannical rule of Britain's mad king, 44—Lewis and Clark under supervision of Ethel Cather is to represent the first great exploring expedition under the flag of the U. S.

Group 5—Under supervision of Mrs. Nelle McNewy and Rachel Cowden is to represent the expanding power and protecting influence of this nation under the Monroe Doctrine.

Group 6—Under supervision of Marie Hollister is to represent the '49ers, those hardy pioneers who braved the mountains, the desert, and the Indians to reach the Eldorado of the west.

Group 7—Is to represent those mighty men in Blue and Gray who readily gave their lives for what they believed to be right.

Group 7—Under supervision of Mrs. Cora Zeigler and Mrs. E. E. Lollar is to represent our beloved state under the three flags which have waved in power over her plains, the flag of Spain borne by the Spanish Cavalier, the flag of France, borne by the devoted Priest Missionaries and the flag of our own United States.

Group 9—Under supervision of Margaret Beal is to represent the first white men to venture into the wilds of the new country, the cowboys.

Group 10—Under supervision of Rev. Geo. Hummel is to represent the man who followed close after the cowboy and served as the spiritual adviser of the early settler, the Circuit Rider.

Group 11—Under supervision of Elsie Cather is to represent Nebraska's great scourge, the grass-hopper.

Group 12—Under supervision of Mrs. Nelle McClure represents the period of drought and distribution of aid.

Group 13—Under supervision of Mrs. J. C. Myers is to illustrate the fact that in spite of the struggles and privations of the state's early history she has produced many of the world's most eminent characters, some of whom will be represented.

Group 14—Under supervision of Mrs. J. F. Warren is to represent the state's struggle for moral progress in the conquest of the influence of booze.

Group 15—Under supervision of Mabel Pope is to represent the triumph of cause of equal suffrage in the state.

Group 16—Under the supervision of C. F. Cather is to show that Nebraska and Webster county will not lack in its support of the Red Cross movement.

Group 17—Under supervision of Prof. H. E. Baird is a pledge that our Allies and our soldiers on French soil will be fed.

Group 18—Under supervision of Marie Pulsipher and Zella Taylor is to represent Nebraska's greatest crop.

Group 19—Under supervision of Mrs. Hazel Powell is to illustrate that most valuable movement among our younger girls the Camp Fire.

Group 20—Under supervision of Rev. J. L. Beebe, the soldiers of tomorrow, the Boy Scouts.

Group 21—Under supervision of Hon. E. G. Caldwell is to illustrate that department of our public service with the most glorious record in the history of time, the men of our Navy.

Group 22—Under supervision of Bessie Havel, Marguerite Fogel and Jennie Miner is to illustrate the spirit that is actuating the greatest nations of modern civilization, our own and her allies.

Group 23—Under the supervision of Marguerite Richardson is to represent Democracy Triumphant.

Group 24—Under the supervision of Bertha Doyle, Isabel Maynard and Laura Hedge is the force which assures the triumph of our flag, our country and our ideals.

Red Cross Work

We expect to have all supplies for Red Cross work in Webster County here by July 1st.
C. F. CATHER, Chairman.

They are now Sailing on the Matrimonial Sea

After several months of romance Mr. Russel Amack, the popular and obliging clerk at the Hamilton-Cather Clothing Company's store, quietly left the city Sunday, it later becoming known that his destination was Lincoln, and on Wednesday he was united in marriage to Miss Hazel McKeighan. The ceremony took place at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bauers.

The bride was born and reared to young womanhood in this vicinity, graduating from the Red Cloud High School and for the past two years she has been engaged as an instructor in rural schools. She is a charming young lady who by her winning ways has made a host of friends and is in every way capable of presiding over the home they will establish.

The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Amack, who reside southeast of this city, and is also a Webster county product. He is a graduate of the Red Cloud High School, later attending the State University. For some time past he has held a responsible position in the Hamilton-Cather Clothing establishment and has by his constant attention to his duties and his genial disposition made many friends in social and business circles.

The young couple will, after a brief honeymoon, return to this city and begin housekeeping in a dwelling in the west part of the city.

The Chief along with their many friends wish them much joy and happiness during their journey through life. May their troubles be but little ones.

There's Going to be a Big Crowd here July 4th

All indications point to the biggest crowd in Red Cloud, July 4th, ever seen here. Its up to Red Cloud people to see they are entertained and shown the courtesy of the city. Open your homes, offer your lawns, make them welcome and show our visitors we appreciate their coming here. Large delegations will be here from Lebanon, Esbon, Guide Rock, Cowles, Blue Hill, Riverton, Franklin and Bloomington. Let everybody who can offer their services to the committee and help make this day a day long to be remembered by our visitors. Decorate your homes! Cut the weeds in front of your houses and get ready for company.
F. W. COWDEN, Secretary.

Exemption Board Appointed

The names of the members of the county exemption board as appointed by President Wilson, on June 20th, to determine who shall be selected from the men who registered on June 5th, was announced by Governor Neville on Tuesday afternoon. It will be composed of the County Clerk, County Sheriff and a physician (usually the county physician).

In accordance with this decree the fate of the young men in this county will rest in the hands of Messrs. Frank Perry, Frank Huffer and Dr. Damerell.

While this is a grave responsibility to rest on the shoulders of these officials we feel confident that they will carry out their duties without fear or favor, as they have in all other matters pertaining to their respective office duties.

We trust that when the day arrives for the selection of the men that none of our single boys will be found to possess a weak heart and that no yellow streak will be located where the back bone is supposed to be located. Now is the opportune time to let old Uncle Sam know that we appreciate all the freedom and prosperity that we have received during the past, under his guiding hand. Stand Up and Show Him You are a Man and a True American.

Mrs. J. W. Corbett spent the first of the week with her son, Fred and family, in Kansas.
