Old Residents Called

Somewhere down the corridors of life there is always an end. Some stumble and fall on the way; some reach it at the full fruition of a well spent life and calmly pass the portal opening into the great beyond. In the latter class two esteemed residents of Red Cloud answered the Master's call during the week past. From our esteemed contemporary the Chief reprints:

MRS. DAN LINDSEY

The funeral of Mrs. Dan Lindsey held at the Methodist church on Sunday at 1 o'clock, in charge of Rev. F. M. Drulliner, was attended by a large company of deeply sympathetic neighbors and friends and was characterized by a pathos and tenderness touching and genuine.

Martha J. York was born July 5, 1847. On December 24, 1868, she was united in marriage to Dan Lindsey, they moving to Wisconsin, and from there coming to Nebraska some thirty one years ago. To this union was born two children, Mrs. Adelle Pierce of San Marcos, California, and Myron of Caldwell, Kansas, who together with their father are left to mourn her loss.

A rather strange co-incidence lies in the fact that when giving Rev. Drulliner dates and data preparatory to funeral services, it was found that Mrs. Lindsey and the reverend's mother were cousins.

Mrs. Lindsey was converted to the Free Methodist belief in middle life, afterward uniting with the M. E. church of this city, and her passing into the spirit land was dominant and courageous of soul, trusting and triumphant of spirit.

MRS. JAS. ROBINSON

Funeral services for Mrs. J. H. Robinson were conducted by Rev. F. M. Drulliner at the Methodist church in this city on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after which interment was made in the Martin cemetery.

Susanna Jones was born August 31, 1847, and on July 1, 1875, was united in marriage to Jas. Robinson at Brownville, this state, moving to this county in 1872. To this union two children were born, a daughter, now Mrs. R. C. Schultz of this city, and a son, Arthur living in Guide Rock, who together with her husband, one sister, Mrs. Frank Kimerman, of Stella, and one brother, Jas. Jones of Oregon City, Oregon, are the immediate relatives left to mourn her loss.

The lady had been in poor health for some time, and since disposing of the restaurant business in which she and her husband were engaged in, in this city some six years ago, she has made her home alternately with her children, who though now bereft of a mother's guidance, can find much consolation in the fact that they were able and permitted during her declining years, to in a measure recompense her for her services to them during their younger days. Mrs. Robinson had been a member of the M. E. church at Ash Creek for the past sixteen years and her religious belief and its teachings were truly reflected in her everyday life.

Congregational Church Notes

Mother's Day was fittingly observed. The church was fragrant with many flowers and a carnation was presented to each person who attended.

Sunday, May 19th, is Red Cross Day. Churches throughout the nation are requested to observe this day and all members of the Red Cross should wear the emblem.

Thursday evening at eight o'clock there will be a social gathering at the church in honor of Miss Clara Ohl, who leaves for her home at the close of school. Friends of Miss Ohl and of the church are invited to be present. Each person is requested to bring a penny.

The public is invited to all services of the church.

Stevens-Fearn Wedding

On Tuesday evening, May 14th, Miss Margaret Stevens and Mr. Glen Fearn were united in wedlock. Rev. J. L. Beebe pronouncing the words which made them man and wife.

The ceremony took place at the Stevens residence and was witnessed by Mesdames Clair Pope and Roy Rust, also Robert Pope and Miss Nora Mitchell.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Clark Stevens, and is a young lady holding high place in the affections and esteem of a large circle of friends in this community.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fearn, Webster county citizens, and a young man of energy and ambition.

The happy couple are being showered with good wishes in which the Chief joins most heartily.

Flour can be sent to those who are across the water, potatoes cannot. The best flour costs about 7 cts a pound, the best potatoes 1 1/2 cts per pound. Moral—Eat potatoes.

There is a Difference in Lenses

Just as there is between a piece of pure gold and that containing alloy. The lenses used by me are the finest that can be had. These come in the rough and are ground until they exactly meet the requirements of your particular eye trouble. One cannot be too careful about the eyes. The matter of a dollar or so should not enter into the calculation. This store refuses to ask for your patronage by price alone—the cure is the thing desired by me or well as yourself. Even so, you will find the charge unusually low, taking into consideration the high quality.

It will be to the interest of your eyes to have them examined here
