Overing, Red Cross secretary, addressed a large assembly at the home of Jess Reigle in the Fred Copley community, Tuesday. The meeting was for the purpose of furthering the interest in War Savings Society which has a large membership in that section. It is their aim to enroll every resident and make the precinct 100 per cent W. S. S. In addition to the speaking an appropriate and interesting program was presented by local talent. The old reliable W. F. Lewis Stock Co., will visit us again on September 2, in a week of fun and entertainment, as per announcement elsewhere in this paper. These people have been visiting Red Cloud for a number of years and are known by most every one in this section. Every one who knows them knows that Mr. Lewis always gives them their money's worth in a clean, honest, up-to-date show, and every one who is connected with the show must be ladies and gentlemen or they are fired from the show. True, the war is with us, but it is also true the people need a certain amount of clean entertainment and relaxation to keep them in good spirits. All work and worry and no play makes Jack a dull boy.

No Trespassing

Trespassing will not be allowed on the Miner ranch during growing and grazing seasons, under penalty of the law. C. H. MINER ALF NOLAN

A Bargain

160 acres 7 miles from Bird City, all good level farm land except a few acres, 87 acres of breaking to be sown to wheat this fall one third to the purchaser, price $2500.00. Will carry $1000.00 for 5 years. This is an exceptional bargain! J. W. Stockman has just returned from Bird City with $1300.00 as his one third share of 23 acres of wheat from the farm, which is $4.99 per acre. No further comments are necessary. J. B. BAILEY.

The Stock Inspection Trip

About thirty interested citizens assembled Tuesday afternoon to join in the stock inspection trip previously arranged by County Agent Fausch. An interesting trip was the result, despite the fact that dust and heat had a little the upper hand of comfort. The itinerary took in the southern part of the county and, for lack of time a number of stock farms in this section were not visited. A later trip is planned which will cover the northern part of the county. The following farms were visited and the high-grade cattle and modern silos proved interesting and instructive even to the novice. Chas. Stewart, Shorthorn cattle and Poland China hogs; John Olmsted, Shorthorn cattle and Duroc Jersey hogs; Ralph McCallum was absent so the party did not see his Hereford cattle and Berkshire hogs; the county agent's model farm was the next stopping place, and, thence to J. H. Hamilton & Sons, breeders of Shorthorn cattle and Poland China hogs, Chris Starke's big round barn, large silo and Holstein cattle were the next objects of attention. These were the prominent points on the thirty-mile trip. Others equally good are Clarence and Ed Johnson, shorthorn cattle and Duroc Jersey hogs; Boyd Harrington, Shorthorn cattle; Conrad Starke, Duroc Jersey hogs; Thos. Stewart, Shorthorn cattle and Duroc Jersey hogs; and Hella Johnson breeder of horses, mules and cattle. The men will exhibit at the Webster County Farmers' Institute at Red Cloud Oct. 22-25.

Married at High Noon

Miss Eva Stella Derr and Mr. George M. Pressler, of Trumbull, Neb., were united in marriage Sunday, August 31, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Derr, who resides near the township line north and a little east of Red Cloud. The ceremony which made these two lives to be hereafter as one was performed at high noon by Rev. J. L. Beebe, pastor of the Christian church of this city, Miss Grace Derr and Mr. Floyd Derr acting as attendants to the happy couple. The groom's parents and a few invited guests comprised the assembly which was served with a business wedding dinner immediately after the ceremony. Beautiful and appropriate decorations enhanced the banquet and added to the auspicious occasion—all signs of hearty wishes for the happiness and prosperity of Mr. and Mrs. George Pressler. They will reside at Trumbull.

Cut Them Now!

The beauty of lawns, driveways and streets depends entirely upon their cleanliness. The state law says the weeds must be cut. The value and attractiveness of your property depend much upon the weeds being cut. The measure of your civic and personal pride is displayed in keeping the weeds cut. Hay fever and other diseases can be controlled and eliminated by keeping the weeds cut. Actual financial loss may be prevented by cutting the weeds. Cut them.

Over the Top

The many friends of J. L. Beebe rejoice over the news that official count and the soldiers vote have given him the lead in the race for nomination as State Representative from the 46th District. This is semi-official. The official canvass of the vote will not be completed until tomorrow.
