Death of Former Resident

Mrs. Barbara Pines has received a telegram from Portland, Oregon, stating that her brother-in-law, Louis Vines, died Thursday, August 29th.

The older citizens of Red Cloud will remember Mrs. Vines conducting a jewelry store where the Frank Smith shoe store is now located. He was a charter member of the Red Cloud volunteer fire department and when he first came here worked in the Wallace jewelry store, later going into business for himself. Henry and George Newhouse were his successors in the business he established.

He commanded the respect of his fellow citizens and took an active part in public affairs connected with community uplifting and advancement.

About three years ago, while acting as city physician of Seaside, Oregon he received injuries from which he never recovered.

He is survived by his wife and six children: Mrs. Lena Sauerborn and Fritz, both living in Oregon; Albert, in the army; Lena, Dorothy and Milton, at home with their mother; and besides Mrs. Pines there are several relatives in or near Webster county.

The funeral was held Saturday.

Motion Pictures Essential

Patrons of the Orphan "silent drama" will be pleased to learn that the war industrial board has declared the motion picture business in all its branches, an essential industry. Once more the "movies" are endorsed as of real value—and in this instance the approval comes from high authority. The only prohibitive exception in the ruling is that no new theaters be built during the war.

Gen. Rick of Omaha has advised that the Red Cloud today.

The Supreme Sacrifice

Mr. Edwin Garretson, son of Mrs. E. Garretson of this city, is the third Webster county soldier who has made the supreme sacrifice. Death came to him August 29, 1918, from the effects of wounds received "in action" some time previously.

The bereaved family are not alone in their hour of grief. Everyone in Webster county joins in their sorrow—the nation honors the soldier who gave all for his cause—the Supreme Father opens the doors of everlasting peace to the white soul of one who died and died for the right.

Edwin E. Garretson was born near Omaha, May 25, 1896. He was a member of the National Guards at Van Tassell, Wyo., in 1917, later receiving honorable discharge on account of physical disability.

He went from this city with draft number 10 to Ft. Riley, Mo., and was discharged on June 1st, 1918, as the third son of the family to die in the noble service of his country.

August	612	674	1286
Totals	3995	3965	7960

Of the 1484 volumes now accessioned 865 have been purchased and 619 have been given to the library.

During the month of August 1195 volumes were drawn from the library. Of these 521 were fiction, 22 non-fiction, 48 war books, 574 juvenile and 10 magazines.

The September magazines are now to be found at the library. Among them are the Century, Atlantic, American, Woman's Home Companion, Ladies Home Journal, Outlook, Literary Digest, Red Cross Magazine, Popular Mechanics, etc. They contain many interesting and helpful articles and worth while stories.

A number of volumes of late fiction have been ordered. When these arrive they will be placed on a "pay-as-you-go" and a charge of five cents a week made for the privilege of taking them from the library. These will be the latest books of some of the best popular authors.

There are among the books recently received at the library:—"Happiest Time of Their Lives"—Miller; "A Minstrel in France"—Lauder; "Face to Face with Kaiserism"—Gerard; "The Return of a Soldier"—West; "A Country Chronicle"—Showerman; "The Doctor's Lass"—Booth; "Stella Maria"—Locke; "Red City"—Mills; "Story of Thyra"—Brown; "High Adventure"—Hall; "Anne of the Island"—Montgomery.

There is a Difference in Lenses

Just as there is between a piece of pure gold and that containing alloy. The lenses used by me are the finest that can be had. These come in the rough and are ground until they exactly meet the requirements of your particular eye trouble. One cannot be too careful about the eyes. The matter of a dollar or so should not enter into the calculation. This store refuses to ask for your patronage by price alone—the cure is the thing desired by me or well as yourself. Even so, you will find the charge unusually low, taking into consideration the high quality.

It will be to the interest of your eyes to have them examined here
