There are many ways in which you may use a bank to advantage. Many do not understand that a bank draft is the easiest, safest, cheapest and quickest way to send money by mail, but such is the case. Very seldom is the fee more than ten cents. You do not have to be annoyed by mailing out a formal application, as in the case where you buy a postoffice money order, and if the draft is lost in the mail the bank issues you another one. The next time you have any money to send away, come in and buy a bank draft, and we are sure after that you will use no other medium.

CONGREGATIONAL

The special service at the Congregational church Sunday morning was attended by a large audience. The solos of Miss Sara Marshall and Mr. Hordford were much appreciated.

Mrs. Engel's description of the beautiful entertainment hall maintained by the National Defender's Club of San Francisco, for the recreation and entertainment of the men in camp was very interesting, as well as her vivid description of the great war exhibit now being held in Chicago, and which she attended recently. The purpose of this exhibit is to promote the Fourth Liberty Loan.

The star on the service flag above the red ribbon, bearing the names of Verlin Taylor, and denoting service ever since, which some two months ago was changed to silver had been replaced by one of gold. Mrs. Mitchell in her story to the children, the text of which was John 14:2, touching ly referred to the star as indicating that Verlin has been taken to the home prepared for him.

CHRISTIAN

Rev. J. L. Beebe gave the 6th of a series of sermons on the topic of "Love." He presented the thought of love being a voluntary consecration of one's time and service to public well-being; is the element in human conduct that gives it quality and makes the acts of every day life virtuous; that love is not a state of feeling enjoyed as during a lecture, but a righteous attitude toward the world.

Next Sunday evening, Rev. D. Fitzgerald, Prof. P. M. Whitehead and Atty. Frank Munday will address the congregation on the "Liberty Loan." This is in line with the observance of Oct. 6th as "Patriotic Day."

METHODIST

Rev. J. D. Hammel, the new pastor, gave a forcible sermon on "Promises." The large congregation listened raptly as he defined the different grades of promises and in masterly manner led up to the promises of the Scripture, eternal and unchangeable.

BAPTIST

Sunday School at 10 a. m.
Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8 p. m.

Rev. Harper will preach at the Lutheran school house morning and evening, Sunday, the 6th.

The Writing Workers will meet with Mrs. N. M. Green, Friday at 2:30 p. m.

The Baptist State Convention will meet in Omaha, Oct. 4 to 10th. Much important business will be considered at that time.

The drive to raise the $125,000 for Grand Island College is meeting with success, each association so far raising more than was asked of them. This, the southern association was asked for $17,000 and raised over $20,000.

ADVENT

Both afternoon and evening C. M. Christy, of Lincoln, State Secretary of the Y. P. Volunteer Missionary Society gave addresses upon the subject: "Men Wanted." God's idea of a man, and the experiences one must expect in really expect in really receiving the gift of the holy spirit. His texts were Ezekiel 22:30 and Rom. 8:25.

There is a Difference in Lenses

Just as there is between a piece of pure gold and that containing alloy, the lenses used by me are the finest that can be had. These come in the rough and are ground until they exactly meet the requirements of your particular eye trouble. One cannot be too careful about the eyes. The matter of a dollar or so should not enter into the calculation. This store refuses to ask for your patronage by price alone—the care is the thing desired by me or well as yourself. Even so, you will find the charge unreasonably low, taking into consideration the high quality.

It will be to the interest of your eyes to have them examined here.
