Congress now.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE

GRANT G. MARTIN

Formerly Attorney General. Ten years devoted to the legal business of the state. Now helping Supreme Court to clear its docket.

The Omaha Examiner says: "Grant G. Martin is a persistent advocate of speedy termination of litigation in order to cut down expense, both to litigants and the state. That's the kind of a judge the people want on the supreme bench."

Just drop in and be sociable. We want to talk with you about your subscription to the Chief and what the government requires in the matter.
If you can't call write a check.

the U. S. Service Department of Labor. He has urgent call for first class machinists; automobile mechanics, car repair men; carpenters are also needed.

Word came last week that Albert Ceil was seriously wounded. He is a son of Mrs. W. H. Thomas, who moved to Colorado from here about two months ago.

Get busy and see us about your subscription account. There are but two weeks remaining in which we have full control. After that the government has a say in the matter.

Miss Willa Cather, of whom Red Cloud is justly proud, left for Chicago yesterday morning. She has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.
E. Cather for some time past.

Elery Ralph and wife, formerly of this city, but now living near Guide Rock, received the sad news this week that their son Earl had been seriously wounded, some where in France. Earl was well-known here.

Mayor Damerell visited the schools one day this week and in his capacity as a doctor and also a member of the Board of Health, reports very little danger from so-called Spanish influenza at the present time. Elsewhere in this paper we publish symptoms, precautions and treatment. It's an article worth reading and preserving.

The Red Cross Subscriptions for the Auxiliary may be collected either on Saturday or Monday, as the 29th is Sunday. District Court will be in session next week and collectors are requested to pay the money in at the Red Cross room on the first floor, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. E. L.
Grimes and Mrs. Frank Starr, members of the Finance committee, will be on hand to receive the same.

There was an erroneous report circulating this morning to the effect that Mrs. McGuire was dead. Get the truth, before talking—especially in matters of sickness and death.

Forty-eight men are being listed today for departure to Camp Kearney, Calif. They are to leave at 8:45 p. m., Tuesday, Oct. 23rd, by special train.

The Chief ventures the thought that these men are going on one of the finest vacation trips imaginable.

The Farmers Independent Telephone Co. at its annual stockholder's meeting Saturday, re-elected all officers.
No greater compliment could be paid the men who have had the management of company business. The new switch-board, cable lines and other outfit is in place and giving most excellent service.

You Are Losing Money

If you don't sell your cream to the Farmers Union Co-operative Company and receive the dividends.

The Farmers Union County Convention will meet in the Opera House at Red Cloud Saturday, October 19th at 11 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of electing officers and the transaction of such other business as may be required. C. H. Gustafson, of Omaha, will be present and give an address.

What might have been a very serious fire was averted by timely discovery and prompt and efficient action last Monday evening. About 11 o'clock fire supposed to have originated from a defective electric wire, was discovered in Dr. Cook's office above his drug store. An alarm was sounded and the fire department's quick response and efficient work in extinguishing the blaze before it got under dangerous headway resulted in the department treasury being enriched by a check for $25.00 as a slight token of Dr. Cook's appreciation.

Interesting dedicatory services were held at the fine new school house recently completed in District 20, last Monday evening. A patriotic program of speaking and music was presented. Rev. J. L. Beebe, County Attorney Frank Munday and Miss Jessie Kellogg were among the speakers.
Winning the war, checking the profiteer and after-war problems were Mr.
Beebe's topics. Attorney Munday spoke on education, the peace question and unconditional surrender.
Miss Kellogg's talk was of schools as a community organization. Miss Bonell, a former teacher, presided.
Miss Boner was to have been present in the interests of community music, but was unable to attend on account of a recent auto accident.

Potter-Herrick

The community is surprised by Miss Lillie Potter, daughter of S. N. Potter of this city, and Mr. Frank Herrick, well-known prosperous farmer, who went to Smith Center, Kans., Tuesday, and were there married.

After the wedding the happy couple went to Bird City, where they visited sister of the bride.

They will reside on their farm and a host of friends wish them a happy and prosperous married life.

War Savings Report

The reports of secretaries of Local War Savings Societies received to date show the following totals for Webster County:

Number of Members 3136
Number of $5 Stamps sold 3318.
Number of 25c Stamps sold 575.

These are not exact totals but only totals received by me.

B. W. STEWART,

Director War Savings Societies, Webster County.

District Court Proceedings

Judge H. S. Dungan and Court Reporter Dorsey Baird, opened a two day term of equity court last Monday.
Motions and demurrers were disposed of and there will be a jury called for next Monday, the 21st. The following cases will probably be heard by the jury:

Floyd E. Derr vs. Delbert Buckles.
Bernard L. Castor vs. The City of Red Cloud and C. H. Potter.

Phoebe A. Cook vs. John L. Christian, et al.

The first case will awaken interest on account of it being a collision of two automobiles, resulting in damages to both.

The Castor case grows out of an accident to Mr. Castor of Denver, as a result of his falling into the stairway going down to the Potter block barber shop.

The Christian case is a suit on an appel bond, growing out of the purchase by Christian of W. A. Maynard of the Maynard ranch.

Fresh Hastings bread daily at Platt's Grocery.

Brethren Church Notes

We are pleased to announce that Rev. J. Edwin Jarboe, evangelist, and A. Eshelman of McPherson, Kansas, will be with us for the weeks' end meetings. On Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock they will conduct the special communion service assisted by Eld John Ernst and the local pastor.
To these communion services every member is urged to be present and all others who would be interested to observe are cordially invited to meet with us.

On Sunday morning, Oct. 20th, at 11 o'clock following the special communion services Saturday evening and also on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock the visiting ministers above mentioned will fill the pulpit, at which times we extend a cordial invitation to all members and friends to hear the new things these ministers bring back to us.

This week Eld. John Ernst and Rev.
B. N. Eshelman, the local pastor, are making a special visit to each member of the church and will among other things urge attendance at the communion services Saturday evening.

Mrs. Cathryne T. Eshelman was chosen church chorister last Sunday.
She wishes to announce that the new song books, "Kingdom Songs, No. 2" which the church chose to adopt will probably be here some time this week and the joint prayer meetings and song practice will be planned Sunday for the winter.

The small chairs have arrived for the Sunday School room which adds greatly to the equipment of the Primary department.
