Lay up for a rainy day. Money in one's pocket is often spent on the spur of the moment, while you think twice before drawing on your bank account. The one sure way to save money is by depositing it in a responsible bank. That is the only way to prevent it from burning holes in your pocket.

The Heavy Toll of Death

The sable wings of Death have shadowed many homes during the past week.

Sadness reigns and the sympathy of the community goes freely to those bereaved and sorrowing.

WINFRED POPE

Winfred Pope who was here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Pope, but a few weeks since, answered the summons at his home in Denver, Colorado, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 1st, 1918, after a short illness. He grew to manhood in Red Cloud and many hearts are saddened by the loss of a former companion.

He was born Aug. 30, 1882, at Lind, Wis., and came to Red Cloud with his parents when six months of age, at 18 went to Denver entering railroad service in which he spent the remainder of his life, and attained a highly responsible position.

In 1901 he married Eva Howard, who died here 9 years later leaving four children, Harold, Glen, Floyd and Florence.

His surviving widow was Jennie Smith whom he married in 1912.

Besides his wife and parents, and the four children, there are eight brothers and two sisters surviving.

Funeral services are being held this afternoon in charge of Rev. J. L. Beebe.

MRS. A. W. FREED

Died at her home in Highland Township just across the Kansas line, Sunday, Dec. 1st, 1918. She was a native of Wisconsin, and not quite 36 years of age at the time of her death which came after but a few days' illness.

Her husband and two children, aged 3 and 5 years, mourn the loss of a good wife and kind mother. Funeral services were held Wednesday, and interment was in Highland cemetery.

LUCILE SCRIVNER

The pen falters in recording the death of this estimable young lady called when life at its brightest was just opening before her. She was the daughter of Mrs. Fred Walker, of Blue Hill, and was attending school there when stricken by the illness that ended in death Sunday afternoon, Dec. 1st, 1918.

An added burden lies in the fact that the mother is also seriously ill, and was unable to be with her daughter when death came.

OLIVER BISHOP WRIGHT

Mr. Wright, well-known resident of Red Cloud for many years, was called to the great beyond last Monday evening, Dec. 2nd, 1918. For a long time he had been in poor health and the prevailing malady found him incapable of successful resistance.

He was a native of Indiana, and lacked but a few days of being 44 years old. In 1902 at Blue Hill he married Lottie King who died five years later leaving him with one son Ivan. In 1908 he married Anna Anderson at Red Cloud, and a daughter Lois came to this union. The two children, his bereaved wife, and his mother, Mrs. Jake Kinser mourn his departure from a life which brought the love and respect of all who knew him.

Funeral services will be held from the home at 10 o'clock Friday morning, Rev. John Hammel of the M. E. church in charge. Interment will be in Oak Creek cemetery near Blue Hill.

WILLIAM M. MACKAY

Was born in Shelbyville, Ky., July 28, 1844. Died at Red Cloud, Nov. 25th, 1918, from the infirmities of age culminating in a paralytic stroke. He came to Illinois in 1854 and enlisted as a soldier in the Civil war, serving two years and two months. He lost his right arm in the service.

July 12th, 1875, he married Miss Katherine Bogard of Robinson, Ill. The family came to Nebraska in 1899.

Survivors are the bereaved wife, four children, William, Thomas, Bruce and Mrs. Dallas Smith, all residents of Red Cloud, though at present one of the boys is at Camp Funston. A brother and sister reside at Terre Haute, Indiana, and Melton M. Steele is another surviving relative.

Funeral services were held Friday at the South Side Mission, Rev. J. L. Beebe officiating, and interment was in Red Cloud cemetery.

MRS. MYRA SMITH

A few days illness ended in the death of the wife of Ranson Smith residing near Amboy.

Death came Monday evening, Dec. 2nd, 1918, and the young wife passed over the Great Divide when life's real pathway was but just opening before her.

She was a daughter of Mrs. Chas. Wiggins, and was born in Kansas, May 22, 1900.

Her husband, one child, her parents and other relatives mourn an irreparable loss.

Funeral services were held at the cemetery this (Thursday) morning, Rev. John Hammel and Rev. J. L. Beebe in charge.

MR. AND MRS. PATRICK McCAULEY

The people of Northeast Pawnee section were saddened by news of the death of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McCauley, which occurred at Hastings last week. Both husband and wife crossed the Great Divide within one week, the former succumbing to pneumonia following influenza, and the latter who had but recently undergone an operation, not having strength to withstand the shock of her husband's demise.

Death came to Mrs. McCauley at almost the very hour arranged for her husband's funeral, which was then postponed and on Wednesday a double funeral was held and the mortal clay of these two, united in death, was laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery at Roseland, near Hastings.

Patrick McCauley was a well-known and well-liked farmer of Logan, Smith Co. and Matilda Portz of Roseland, who became his wife, was a most estimable young lady, a loving mother and exemplary Christian woman. The former was 32 years of age, the latter 30.

Four small children, the eldest but 8 years old, mourn the absence of "papa" and "mamma." The surviving grandparents and other relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Le Fontenay's Recital Proves EDISON'S TRIUMPH

Ever since the first phonograph was made, music lovers have looked forward to the day when this wonderful invention would be perfected—when it would reproduce the human voice with such exactness that the reproduction would be just as real as the actual voice it reproduced.
