

Smart Styles in Dress Fabrics

The newest product of the looms—the fabrics they are wearing where fashion's devotees congregate are to be found in our showing of

La Porte Dress Fabrics
Silk, Cotton and Wool.

The spirit of thrift has caused people to expect to get extra wear out of the fabrics they buy and make up.

La Porte Dress Fabrics satisfy this expectation because they have the plus service woven into them.

Guy T. Bates, of Grand Island, state manager of the Farmers' Life Insurance Co., of Denver, Colorado, came down yesterday to deliver to S. H. Johnson, father of and administrator of the estate of his son, Roy A. Johnson, a draft for $2500.00, as payment of the policy held by the young man in this company. It will be recalled that Roy Johnson passed away some weeks ago, a victim of the recent epidemic, but the short delay in the payment of his policy was due to the time necessary for the appointment of an administrator. He had paid but three premiums, a total of but $195.15.

The Marriage Ring

Does a Marriage Ring Really Mean Anything?

It counts for you and for me and other "regular folks" but how about the man and woman who are as far apart as the poles in temperament? One of them, say, is all mait a Paritan, the other a den-on-the-fringe of the under world—how about them?

UKELELE LAND—the Hawaiian cuntry—is the locale of the "Marriage Ring," Enid Bennett's newest Paramount picture. The story starts in San Francisco, the Col-Cate city, and then goes to the "Sandwich" Island, where the drama culminates.

Billie Rhodes, the sprightly dark-eyed little star who has created a piquant style of comedy all her own, has a remarkably clever vehicle in her latest picture "Hoop-La."

"Hoop-La" is a beautiful young girl who is an all-around star in a one ring circus playing county fairs and small towns. She rides bare back, does thrilling trapeze acts and "doubles" as a body-clown, her guardian and faithful friend is Old Toodles, a clown with the circus, who "brought her up" from a baby, at the Orpheum Monday and Tuesday.
