 Last week's issue of the Argus announces that W. D. Edson has purchased L. E. Tait's interest in that prosperous publication and is now sole owner. We are pleased to note Bro. Edson's progress, and wish him success. We have always found him an agreeable and honorable competitor and without a doubt the Argus will continue to advance under his able editorial and mechanical guidance.
 Lady Paget, a social leader of London, is an American girl by birth and thoroughly en rapport with every movement calculated to bring victory to the allied cause in the war against German militarism. Lady Paget is one of the many members of the British nobility including Queen Alexandra, who are pictured and personally take parts in "The Great Love," the new Artercraft photoplay of David W. Griffith's which will be shown at the Orpheum next week, Wednesday and Thursday. The leading roles are portrayed by Lillian Gish, Robert Harron and Henry B. Walthall.
 Theater goers of this city have a varied line of entertainment offered them this week. Motion pictures, with high class vaudeville in connection the first two days of the week at the Orpheum, the class play Wednesday evening and Commencement exercises this evening at the same popular play house, with the Arlington Stock Company all week in their own Pavilion theatre. However the unfavorable weather has in no way interfered and those in attendance at the various entertainments report good attendance and high class productions. The class play will be repeated at the Orpheum, Friday evening.

Many Enjoy Band Concert

The second open air band concert was given last Friday night in the portable band pavilion on the city square. An unusually large crowd had assembled for the occasion. Many selections by the entire band as well as solos by individual members made up the musical program. Considering the short time that Professor Miller has had charge of our musical organization, this season, he has made wonderful progress, as the Red Cloud Band is now classed among the best in this section of the state.
 Following is the program for Friday evening, June 6th:
 March.....Vandershot
 "General Pershing" (new)
 Overture....."Greeting".....Lake
 Intermezzo....."Russe".....Frankie
 Selection from the Comic Opera.....
 "Wang".....Maxse
 Characteristic.....DeCarmont
 "The Village Blacksmith"
 Medley of Popular Songs 1918.....Taylor
 Patrol....."Marche Turque".....Eilenberg

 THEDA BARA Presenting
'Why Men Desire'
 Jealousy almost ruins a beautiful love story in "When Men Desire."
 Theda Bara, as Marie Lohr, finds her road to matrimony and happiness beset with obstacles because of the jealousy of an unsuccessful suitor. As an American woman her attempts to escape from Germany are full of thrills but end happily at the close of a thrilling story.

'The Great Love'
 D. W. Griffith's greatest picture since the 'Birth of a Nation' and with the same cast. An attraction of superior merit with scenes showing dowager Queen Alexandria and the first families of England [themselves, not impersonators] doing menial work to help win the war. It is a mighty story of woman's regeneration by war. The hand that rocks the cradle is the hands that wields a weapon as pointed as the sword.
