Big Day at Guide Rock July 4

To those who have been wondering where they will spend the Fourth the following information will be welcomed—Guide Rock will celebrate the great day. The committee in charge of the celebration is now busily engaged in making final preparations and it is needless to say that they will arrange a program that will please everyone.

It will be one of the good old-fashioned kind—one, to which everyone is invited—one, where pleasure and good fellowship will predominate. A list of big free attractions have already been scheduled. The headliner will be a flying exhibition. There will be an abundance of amusements, free shows, ball game, races, games, etc. There will be band music galore, a patriotic address, with an elaborate display of fireworks in the evening.

Free rest rooms will be provided for the ladies and kiddies and a police patrol will be in charge, insuring safety and good order.

Guide Rock citizens extend an invitation to every one to come, to take possession of their shady lawns, to partake of their hospitality and enjoy the day.

More Paving for Red Cloud

A special session of the city council was held on Wednesday evening in the council chambers, finding Mayor Pope, and Councilmen Hamilton, Turnaire, Oatman and Trine present.

The petition of G. W. Hutchison, et al, for the paving of Cedar street from Fourth avenue north to Ninth avenue, thence west on Ninth avenue to the alley between Block 1, Highland and Welsh Addition and Block 9 LeDuc's Addition; the petition of E. L. Grimes, et al, for the paving of Walnut street from Fourth to Ninth avenue; the petition of A. H. Carpenter, et al, for the paving of Fourth avenue from Cedar street west to the city limits; the petition of Mary S. Creighton, et al, for the paving of Walnut street from Fourth avenue south to Second avenue and east on third avenue from Walnut street to the alley on Third avenue, between Webster and Cedar street, and the petition of Sam Lindsey, et al, for the paving of Seward street from Fourth avenue north to Ninth avenue, were brought for hearing and after due consideration the Councilmen voted to pave the above named streets.

A petition of protest headed by Miss Belle Spanogle objecting to proposed paving of Fourth avenue, and a protest from Thomas Emerton, et al, against the proposed paving of Walnut street were also heard by the Mayor and Council.

C. F. Catber, L. M. Crabill, Belle Spanogle, C. H. Potter and C. I. Cotting spoke against the proposed paving and Rev. Fitzgerald, F. W. Cowden, Sam Lindsey and F. E. Maurer spoke in favor of it.

After a survey has been completed by City Engineer Overing bids will be advertised for and contract let to the lowest and best bidder.

After Ordinance number 60 had been read and passed the meeting adjourned.

Makes Money Trading Autos

The last of the week Charles McDonald who had been repairing automobiles around the city stole Norman Phillips' Ford car, driving it to Inavale where he traded the same to Bert Leonard for his old car and $125 on the side. A little later McDonald took possession of an Oakland car belonging to T. W. Harrington, who resides near Inavale and drove it to Hastings. Here he traded the Oakland to a Hastings man for a Studebaker with a little cash on the side, in his favor, and then departed for unknown parts, where in all probability he is still engaged in "swapping" cars. The cars belonging to Phillips and Harrington were returned, the later being brought back from Hastings by Sheriff Huffer.

George Kaley, manager of the Farmers' Union Elevator, is in Omaha this week attending the State Grain Dealers convention.

"Bolshevism on Trial"

The timeliest picture ever screened is Select Pictures' great Special Attraction, "Bolshevism on Trial," which comes on Monday and Tuesday to the Orpheum Theatre. It is a story about the biggest problem with which America is at present confronted, based upon the novel Comrades by Thos. Dixon. Russia, now bleeding and helpless, was attacked by this demon. Several attempts have been made to attack America, but she has been successful in warding off its cruel blows. The future of our nation depends upon the solving of this great problem—how to keep this treacherous animal—Bolshevism—from our doors.

"Bolshevism on Trial" gives you a keen insight into the nature of the Bolshevist; his greed, his treachery and his vile attacks. It does not oppose Socialism—the Government recognizes Socialism—but it shows how Socialism could be turned into Bolshevism, with all its attendant horrors and lust. "Bolshevism on Trial" is not a propaganda picture but a swiftly moving drama containing a delightful love story. It provides a lesson, as well as amusement.
