

PRINCE ALBERT

Copyright 1913 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

YOU can't help cutting loose joy's remarks every time you flush your smokespot with Prince Albert—it hits you so fair and square. It's a scuttle full of jimmy pipe and cigarette makin's sunshine and as satisfying as it is delightful every hour of the twenty-four!

It's never too late to hop into the Prince Albert pleasure-pasture! For, P. A. is trigger-ready to give you more tobacco fun than you ever had in your smokecareer. That's because it has the quality.

Quick as you know Prince Albert you'll write it down that P. A. did not bite your tongue or parch your throat. And, it never will! For, our exclusive patented process cuts out bite and parch. Try it for what ails your tongue!

Toppy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors—and that clever, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.

Young Man Goes Wrong
A young fellow named Green seems to have got off on the wrong foot here during the first day of our celebration and we understand is now in the county jail awaiting trial on a charge of carrying an amount of money away from Scriven's restaurant last Thursday night.

He also passed a $16 check at the Shoe Store that was turned down when presented for payment. His home is over near Guide Rock, Nebraska, where Mr. Eldred and Mr. Scriven went today to see his parents about the matter and unless they see fit to straighten the boy's affairs here, his chances look favorable for a trip over the road.—Lebanon Times.

Sheriff Bell of Smith Center was in the city.

John Hasselbacher and son, Curt, were called to Hastings Monday to be at the bedside of their wife and mother who passed away at the hospital there that day.

Bladen Brieflets

M. L. Riggins was in Campbell the first of the week.

L. E. Spence returned the first of the week from a trip into Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cramer and son, Austin, visited at the home of Mrs. W. B. Cramer Sunday.

Campbell defeated Bladen in a hotly contested game at the Campbell ball field Sunday. The score 8 to 4.

Mrs. W. A. Cunningham is spending the week with her son, Ivan, who is in the employ of a Kansas City telephone company.

Mr. Cloyd Greene of Bladen and Miss Clara Miller of Blue Hill were united in marriage at the home of the bride last Saturday. They will make Bladen their home.

Mrs. B. A. Kuhn recently returned from a visit to Indianapolis. She also made an excursion from there to Boston to visit her son, Milo, who is in the navy and is training at that place.

Wheat in this vicinity is making as low as three bushel per acre and as high as twenty five. Scattered showers late in the spring are held partially responsible for the larger productions in some areas. The averages run to extremes on neighboring farms at times.
